Antonio Aviles,

52, of Beaumont, died Saturday, February 20, 2021. He was born on April 29, 1968, in Mexico, to Francisca Dominguez and Palemon Aviles.

Survivors include his wife of twenty-seven years of marriage, Adelaida Martinez; daughters, Griselda Morales and her husband, Jose; Miriam Aviles; and Nancy Aviles; son, Antonio Aviles Jr.; grandchildren, Jose Morales III, Allyson Morales, and Daniela Morales; brothers, Fausto Aviles, Ignacio Aviles, Juvencio Aviles, and Felipe Aviles; sisters, Isabel Rodriguez, Socorro Aviles, and Rogelia Aviles; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Antonio lived his life to the fullest and without any fear. He immigrated to a country he knew nothing about without a single dollar to his name. He knew he wanted a better life and was able to provide a better life to his wife and children. He taught them to always work hard, and anything was possible. Antonio was known for his contagious smile and goofy personality. He was a Jeep man who loved spending his Saturday mornings cleaning and working on his Jeep. He was also a father that made sure his daughters were taken care of, especially when it came to their vehicles. He would change their oil, be there when they got stuck in the mud, and came as quick as he could when any of them had a flat tire. He spent his Sundays grilling burgers with his son, even if sometimes they didn't turn out the best. He was a man who had an immense love for 80's music. He enjoyed spending any moment he could with his three grandkids. Antonio loved his family very much. He was a great husband, father, grandfather, brother and uncle.

He was preceded in death by his parents.
