“Even If”

Henrietta Matilda Fanders Keese, 94, of Beaumont, died Thursday, November 9, 2017, at Baptist Hospitals of Southeast Texas, Beaumont. She was born on March 8, 1923, to Frieda Reineking Fanders and Henry Fanders in Diller, Nebraska, and had been a longtime resident of Beaumont. Henrietta loved to sew and crochet. She became born again in 1973 and was involved in the Ladies Bible Study Group at Christian Fellowship Worship Center.

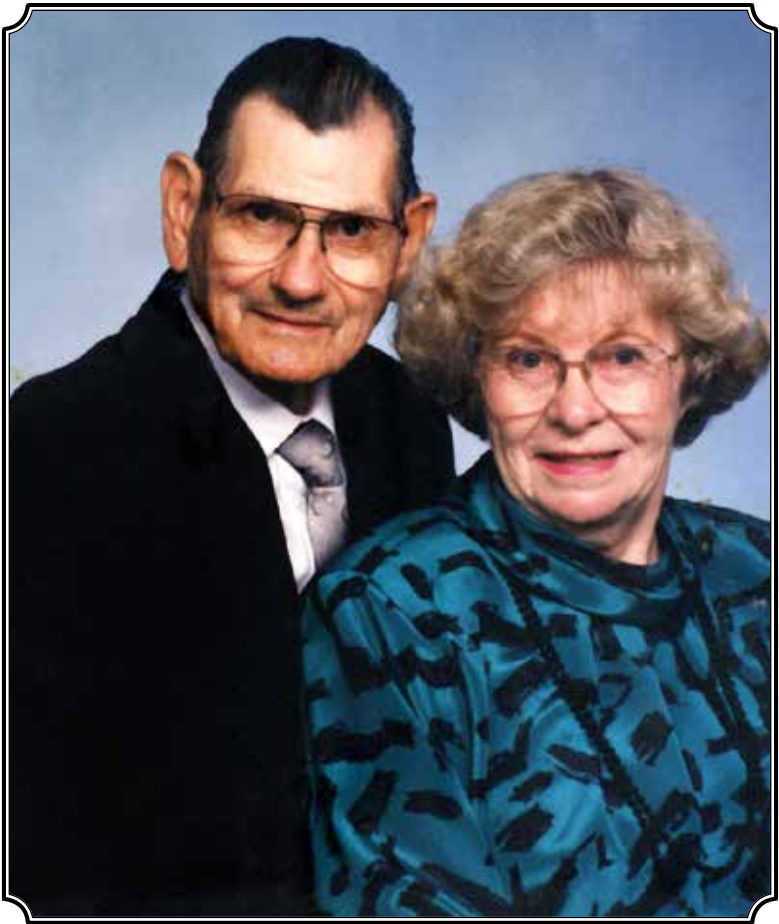

Henrietta was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. God had gifted her with a genuinely happy and upbeat personality that people were drawn to. You rarely found her without a smile on her face, a kick in her step, or a contagious giggle that would brighten up a room. Her sincere Christ-like character influenced and encouraged those around her. Many times her talent for sewing and crocheting blessed those who were fortunate enough to receive a handmade item from her. She shared so much love with so many people and she will be greatly missed. We rejoice with heaven at her homecoming.

Survivors include her daughter, Vicki Ellis of Beaumont; brother, R.H. Fanders and his wife, Phyllis, of Council Bluff, Iowa; daughter-in-law, Elizabeth Bernard Keese of Groves; grandchildren, Thad R. Keese and his wife, Carrie, of San Antonio and Bonnie Nolan and her husband, Joseph, of Bonner Springs, Kansas; and great-grandchildren, Ashley Keese, Briana Keese, T.J. Keese III, Weston Nolan, and Benjamin Nolan.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Warren Keese; son, Thad “Goat” R. Keese; granddaughter, Rachel R. Ellis; brother, Eldon Fanders; and sister, Rosalie Mayfield.
