Juanita Marie Nallie, 86, of Beaumont, died Saturday, January 6, 2018, at Christus Hospital-St. Elizabeth, Beaumont. She was born on March 21, 1931, to Martha Broussard Menard and Lallace Menard, in Beaumont. Juanita was a member of the Red Hatters and an avid volunteer in the community for a lifetime.

Survivors include her daughters, Sammie Lawless and Diane Nallie, both of Beaumont; son, Robert Nallie and his wife, Brenda Rost, of Groves; sister, Helen Walker of Port Arthur; grandchildren, Michael Baker and his wife, Monique; Carrie Hunt and her husband, Newly; David Welch and her husband, Janell; Danny Welch and his wife, Tiffany; Angela Halpin and her husband, Chris; David Nallie; Ronda Lahood and her husband, Randall; and Amanda Romero; and nine great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Pete Nallie, Sr.; daughter, Carolyn Baker; son, Pete Nallie, Jr.; and brothers, James Menard and Lee Menard.

I Am Free

Do not grieve for me, for now, I am free.
I am following the path God laid for me.
I took His Hand when I heard Him call.

I turned and left it all.

I could not stay another day;
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found His peace at the close the day.

If my parting has left a void;
then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Ah, yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seems all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me that God wanted me now.
