Addie Dell Okun, 88, of Lumberton, died Wednesday, September 9, 2020, at Harbor Hospice, Beaumont. She was born on March 12, 1932, to Mamie Marie Nash Martin and Clifton S. Martin, in Apple Springs.

Addie was a devoted wife to her beloved late husband, Paul E. Okun. She was a dedicated R.S.V.P. volunteer for many years. While raising her sons, she gave her time to be a Cub Scout Den Mother. Addie was also an Election Judge for the Hardin County Election Committee. She was an avid outdoorsman who hunted and fished and enjoyed western movies and books including Walker Texas Ranger. Addie was a devoted mother and grandmother and was well loved by her neighborhood.

Survivors include her sons, Rickie Paul Okun and his wife, Brenda, of Bon Weir; Guy Martin Okun and his wife, Debbie; James Dale Okun and his wife, Sissy; and Mark Stephen Okun, all of Lumberton; daughter, Paula Dell Okun Poe of Lumberton; brother, Penny Martin of Vidor; thirteen grandchildren; twenty-six great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents; brother, James Martin; sister, Zethria Frederick; and grandchild, Addie Craven.
