David Earl Totino, 77, of Mauriceville, died Monday, April 5, 2021, at Houston Methodist Hospital. He was born on January 21, 1944, in Port Arthur, to Leola Simoneaux Totino and Frank Totino.

David served in the United States Air Force during Vietnam. After his military service, he went to work for Gulf Chemical, advancing to the position of supervisor, and retired from Chevron. David is a member of the Lord's church, having served as a deacon with the West Orange church of Christ, and then as an elder in Beaumont with the Northwest church of Christ. He was a good and loving husband and father. His wife, Mary, says he is the greatest man she has ever known.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Totino, of Mauriceville; daughters, Kim Dunkin and her husband, Mack, of Diboll and Kristie Collins and her husband, Jason, of Houston; brother, Darrell Totino and his wife, Paulette, of Orange; grandchildren, Michael Miller and his wife, Jordy, of DeQuincy, Louisiana; Meagan Cecil and her husband, Daniel, of Deer Park; Garrett Dunkin, of Hudson; Savannah Dunkin, of Diboll and her fiancé, Kyle Hill, of Baytown; Brandon Collins, of Huntsville; and Hope Collins, of Houston; great-grandchildren, Charley Lewis, of Lake Charles, Louisiana; Cameron Miller, of DeQuincy, Louisiana; Carley Miller, of DeQuincy, Louisiana; Aubrey Cecil, of Deer Park; Aria Cecil, of Deer Park; and Jace Dunkin, of Diboll; and several nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents.
