Verlyn "Maw Maw" Wright Baber, 91, of Beaumont died peacefully surrounded by her loving family on January 1, 2017 at Baptist Hospitals of Southeast Texas. She was born on May 15, 1925 in Bronson, Texas to Luther and Julia Wright. She worked for Southwestern Bell as a phone operator for many years, and was a faithful member of North End Baptist Church.

If you missed a holiday or birthday, you always received a heartfelt card in the mail. Maw Maw always put her family first. She was the quintessential mother and grandmother and she will never be replaced.

She is survived by her daughter-in-law, Sarah Stafford; step-son, Billy Baber and his wife, Judy; grandchildren, Grace Baber; Anna Baber Childs and her husband, Patrick; Ellen Baber; David Baber and his fiancé, Pam Causey; Sheri Baber Sherwin and her husband, Jon; great-grandchildren, Taylor Grace Hughes, Stafford Wayne Baber, Matthew Sherwin, and Nathan Sherwin; sister, Helen Minnis; caregiver, Omara McConathy, several nieces and nephews; and many dear close friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents; sister, Virgie; brother, Winfred; her loving husband of sixty-five years, Bill Baber, Jr.; son, Kenneth Wayne Baber; and her adopted son, Larry Stafford.

So little time to say the things
You would really like to say;
Before you even find words,
The time just slips away.
So little time to do the things
You feel that you must do;
So treasure, like the purest gold,
The time God gives to you.
So little time to dream your dreams,
For youth will pass its prime;
And all too soon you realize
That there's so little time.
So little time to reach the heights
To which you're bound to climb;
For swiftly pass the waning years,
And there's so little time.
So little time for past regrets,
And less to make amends;
Yet God can heal the deepest wounds
In chosen, cherished friends.
So little time to share God's love
And beauty here on earth;
And know, before His endless time,
Their meaning and true worth.
Oh, yes, there is so little time
To seek the Hidden Door
That opens up to Heaven's time;
Where time is forevermore.
"I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture"
(John 10:9)
