Freddie Daigle, 61, of Hamshire, died Tuesday, February 25, 2020. He was born on September 18, 1958 in Rayne, Louisiana to Relma Marie Richard Daigle and Joseph “Fred” Daigle. Freddie worked for over twenty years as an OR surgical tech at St. Elizabeth Hospital and Healthsouth. More recently he worked as a pipe fitter. He had a passion for cooking and loved to feed his family and friends.

Survivors include his wife of thirty six years, Suggie Hopson Daigle; daughters, Alana Thibodeaux and Jarrah Daigle and her husband David Hatcher; sons, Hagan Daigle and his wife, Lyndsie and Kelby Daigle, brother, Christian Daigle; sister, Sheri Gilbert and her husband, Bryon and their daughter Hannah as well as numerous other nieces and nephews and his lifelong friend “coach” Paulsel who became “Pawpaw Tommy” to Freddie’s grandchildren. His greatest achievement was being a loving “Pa” to his grandchildren, Lexie Collins, Macie Collins, Braylon Robb, Kaden Daigle, Hayes Daigle, Holden Hatcher, Reid Hatcher, Landry Hatcher, Ryder Roebuck, Rebel Roebuck, and Rush Roebuck.

He was preceded in death by his mother.

For My Good Friend,
Freddie Daigle

*I put a saddle on old Moe today
Been a while since he's had one on
He has no way of knowing
That you're really gone
You and I were the lucky ones
Who could stay the course
We spent more time in the saddle
On that old bald-faced horse
He was known to buck
He unseated more than a few
I reckon he has a soft spot
When it comes to me and you
I'm gonna miss you my friend
And the rides we took together
The season is upon us
For the perfect riding weather
My old horse "Mister" was your favorite one to ride
I hope he's saddled up and waiting for you
On the other side*
