

Barney LeBlanc

January 14, 1959 - January 5, 2017

Celebrating the Life of
Barney LeBlanc
Sunday, January 8, 2017 2:00 p.m.
Broussard's Chapel
Nederland, Texas

Photo Slideshow with the following songs:

“Go Rest High on That Mountain” by Vince Gill

“Hallelujah” by Pentatonix

“Amazing Grace” by Josh Groban

Speakers:
Debbie and Woody Gunnell

Poem:
Sydney Abshire

“I Did it My Way” by Elvis Presley

Open Discussion

“I Will Always Love You” by Whitney Houston

Closing Speaker:
Military Tribute

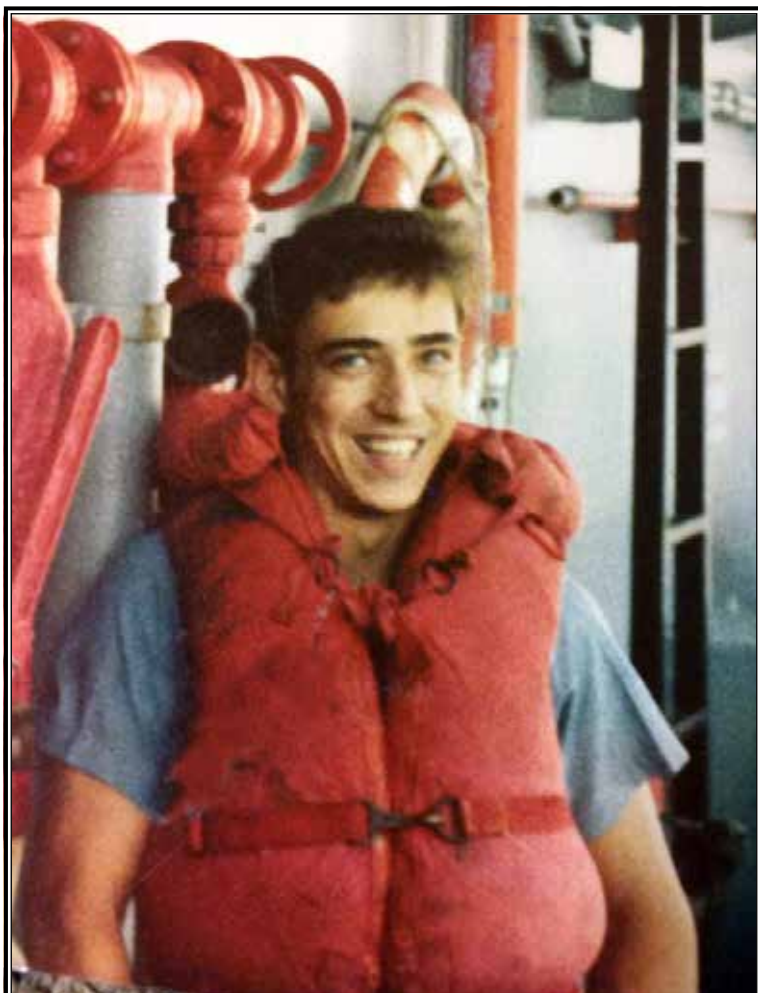

Barney LeBlanc, 57, of Groves, died Thursday, January 05, 2017. He was born on January 14, 1959, in Port Arthur, to Barbara Hebert and Kerney Leblanc.

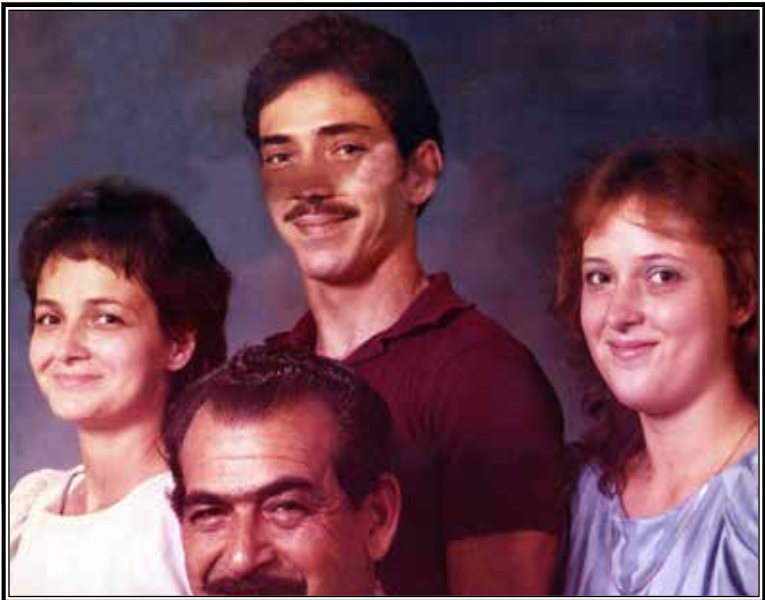

Barney was a United States Navy Veteran. He loved his family and friends, woodworking, geocaching, painting, traveling, and his cats.

Survivors include his wife, Anita Leblanc of Groves; mother, Barbara Hebert of Nederland; daughters, Natasia McNeer of Lumberton and Kashia McCord of Groves; adopted daughter, Tristie Burge; son, Jeff Leblanc of Nederland; sisters, Phyllis Parish of Groves and Mitzi Woods of Nederland; grandchildren, Lilly McNeer and Nash McNeer of Lumberton, Patience Grubbs and Wyatt Rathjen of Nederland; and numerous other family members and friends.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Jara Leblanc; and his father, Kerney LeBlanc.

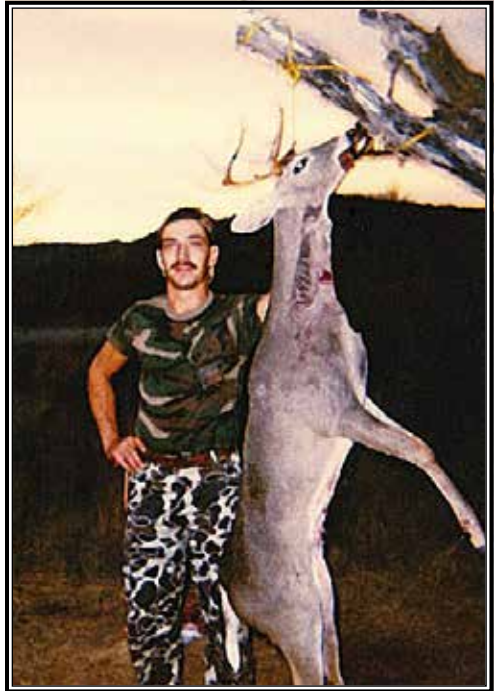

Sailor Of The Month

“I may have multiple afflictions
but still love the Lord very much.”

Military Honors by
Southeast Texas Veterans Service Group

Memorial Contributions

<https://www.gofundme.com/for-the-family-of-barney-leblanc>

Please sign Mr. LeBlanc's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com