Ronald “Ronnie” Steve Washburn, 67, of Brookeland, formerly of Fannett, went to be with the Lord on February 22, 2020. He was born on January 23, 1953 to Lester and Anne Washburn. Ronnie was a native of Groves, Texas and a 1972 graduate of Port Neches-Groves High School. He attended St. Mary Catholic Church for thirty-five years where he served as an usher. Ronnie was a proud lifetime member of the Labelle-Fannett Volunteer Fire Department. He retired from Valero Refinery in Port Arthur with forty years of service as a Boilermaker.

Ronnie was a loving husband and a very devoted, involved father and PaPaw. He was a man of few words who ALWAYS had a huge SMILE on his face. Ronnie was such a hard worker and was always building or fixing something. His family called him Mr. Fix It. Ronnie had a servant heart, always willing to jump in and help others out. He loved to watch and cheer on the Dallas Cowboys, the Houston Astros and the UT Longhorns. The highlight of his life was when he became a PaPaw. He absolutely adored his grandchildren and taught them so much while making tons of precious memories.

Ronnie is survived by his loving wife of forty-five years, Becky Ledoux Washburn; and son, Troy Washburn and wife, Kim, all of Brookeland; daughter, Terica Breaux and husband, Ryan, of Fannett; brother, Eugene Washburn and wife, Patsy, of Nederland; four grandchildren, Kailey and Konnor Washburn, of Brookeland, Rylan and Tyley Breaux, of Fannett; his fur baby, Heidi; and numerous friends and family.
