HYMN

“Blessed Assurance”

Verse 1

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine. Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God. Born of his Spirit, washed in his blood.

Chorus

This is my story. This is my song, praising my Savior all the day long.
This is my story. This is my song, praising my Savior all the day long.

Verse 2

Perfect submission, perfect delight. Visions of rapture now burst on my sight.
Angels descending bring from above, echoes of mercy, whispers of love.

Chorus

Verse 3

Perfect submission, all is at rest. I in my Savior am happy and blest!
Watching and waiting, looking above. Filled with His goodness, lost in His love.

Chorus

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 (New Revised Standard Version)

- 1 For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:
- 2 a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
- 3 a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
- 4 a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
- 5 a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
- 6 a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
- 7 a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
- 8 a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

2 Corinthians 4:16-5:1 (The Message translation)

No wonder we do not lose heart! Though our outward humanity is in decay, yet day by day we are inwardly renewed. Our troubles are slight and short-lived, and their outcome is an eternal glory which far outweighs them, provided our eyes are fixed, not on the things that are seen, but on the things that are unseen. For what is seen is transient. What is unseen is eternal.

We know that if the earthly frame that houses us today is demolished, we possess a building which God has provided – a house not made by human hands, eternal and in heaven.

Romans 8:38-39 (New Revised Standard Version)

38 For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,
39 nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

SPEAKING OUR MEMORIES

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now am found, was blind, but now I see.

The Lord has promised good to me. His word my hope secures.
He will my shield and portion be, as long as life endures.

Through many dangers, toils and snares, I have already come.
‘Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

When we’ve been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun,
We’ve no less days to sing God’s praise than when we’d first begun.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

*OUR MUTUAL BLESSING AND DISMISSAL

Psalm 23 (In unison, King James Version)

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever

Officiant: the Rev. Sharon Gazaway, Pastor, Trinity Presbyterian Church, Port Neches
