Message of Comfort

Terry Lynn Ayres, 66, of Buna, died Saturday, August 10, 2019, at Harbor Hospice of Beaumont. He was born on July 16, 1953, in Woodville, to Amanda (Snyder-Ayres) Small and Grady Ayres. He graduated from Silsbee High School in 1971 and married Sylvia Frazier on October 30, 1971.

It is hard to summarize a life with words, especially when that life had not spoken many himself. You will not read in the annals of history the words he had given in speeches, but his is characterized by God's intentions for us all. Terry approached life with a servant's attitude, worked hard, gave without regret or complaint, and prepared for this life and the one to come.

Terry met Sylvia on a blind date, fell in love, married, then moved to Houston, Texas where their daughter, Angelique Josette was born. They moved to Silsbee where their son, Joseph Stephen was born. Terry went to work for the Eastex Paper Mill in August 1973 and remained a loyal employee until retirement in January 2016.

Terry loved his Savior, Jesus Christ, his family, his church, and his friends. His interests included hunting, fishing, travelling, and entertaining at his home in Buna, Texas. Ahead of all else, Terry lived for his family. He was the grandfather of grandfathers. Paw-Paw suffered through the sweltering heat and late nights for every dance recital, every ball game, every pep rally, every awards ceremony, every birthday party, and would show up early them all. Terry gave, never took, and loved unconditionally.

Survivors include his wife, Sylvia; one daughter, Angelique Goode and her husband, Marshall; two granddaughters, Megan and Mariah; two grandsons, Gavyn and Gabriel, of Lumberton; two brothers, Rex Ayres and his wife Sara, of Silsbee; Herbert Ayres and his wife, Sharon, of Village Mills, and sister, Diane Conkle, of Fannett.

Terry is preceded in death by his son, Joseph Stephen Ayres; brother, Jessie S. Ayres; mother, Amanda Small; and father, Grady Ayres.
