514 When We All Get to Heaven

"In my Father's house are many rooms" — John 14:2 NIV

1. Sing the won-drous love of Je sus, Sing His mer cy
 2. While we walk the pil grim path way, Clouds will o ver
 3. Let us then be true faith ful, Trust ing, serv ing ty
 4. On ward to the prize be fore us! Soon His beau ty and His grace: In the man sions bright and bless ed, spread the sky; But when trav 'ling days are o ver, ev 'ry day; Just one glimpse of Him in glo ry

 we'll be hold; Soon the pearl y gates will o pen;

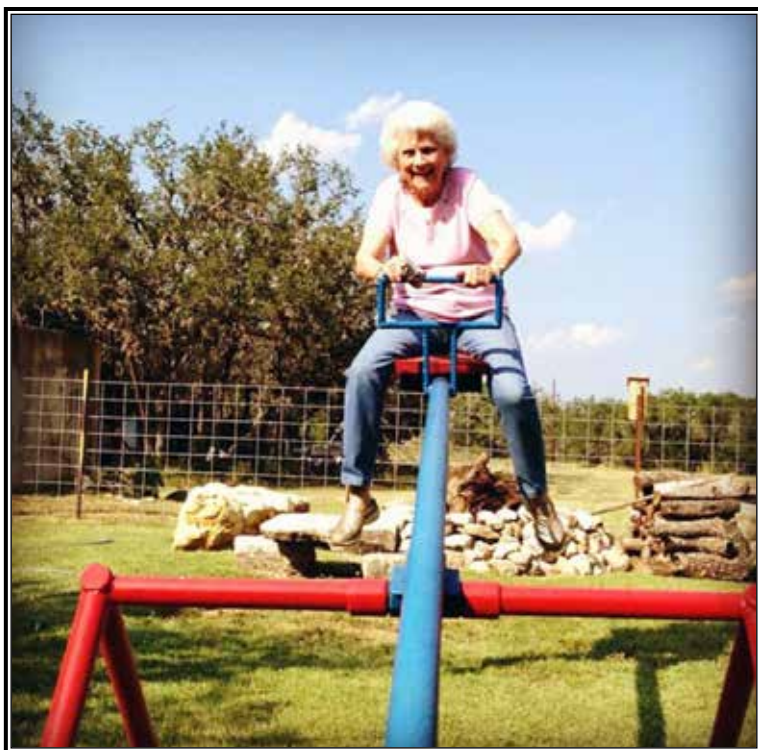

He'll pre pare for us a place. When we all get to
 Not a shad ow, not a sigh. When we all Will the toils of life re pay. When we all
 We shall tread the streets of gold. 1. for us a place.

heav en, What a day of re-joic-ing that will be! When we What a day of re joic ing that will be!

all When we all see Je sus, We'll sing and shout the vic - to ry.
 and shout the vic-to-ry.

Dolores “Dody” Breaux, 89, of Beaumont, died Sunday, April 15, 2018. She was born on January 28, 1929, to Florence Edwina Hawkins and Clinton B. Walker, in Beaumont.

Survivors include her daughters, Sheri Westmoreland and her husband, Richard “Ricky”, of Utopia and Karen Dean and her husband, Charles, of Silsbee; son, Steve Breaux and his wife, Linda, of Beaumont; sister-in-law, Delores Walker of Beaumont; grandchildren, Bethany Wright and her husband, Perry, and Shane Dean and his wife, April, all of Silsbee; Jayna Breaux of Austin; and Carly Klinginsmith and her husband, Jonathon, of Lake Ozark, Missouri; and seven great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Albert Breaux, Jr.; brother, Clint Walker; grandson, Neal Westmoreland; granddaughter, Kaylie Dean Whatley; and her special friend, Sidney Calame.

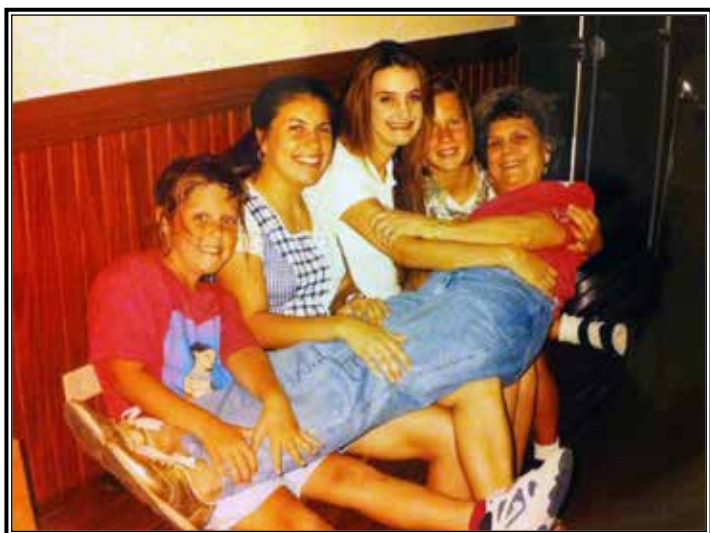

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the caregivers and staff of Montebello Home Health Care and Harbor Hospice for their care and compassion they showed to Dody.

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.
