

Juanita Deen Bridwell
September 9, 1927 - September 6, 2018

Celebrating the Life of
Juanita Deen Bridwell
Sunday, September 9, 2018 1:00 p.m.
Wildwood-Village Mills United Methodist Church
Village Mills, Texas

Opening Song	“Church In The Wildwood”
--------------	---------------------------------

Words of Grace	Reverend Randy Carrion
----------------	------------------------

Greeting

Obituary Reading

Prayer

Song	“I’ll Fly Away”	Alan Jackson
------	------------------------	--------------

Meditation	John 14	Reverend Randy Carrion
------------	---------	------------------------

Closing Song	“Old Rugged Cross”	Alan Jackson
--------------	---------------------------	--------------

Closing Prayer	Reverend Randy Carrion
----------------	------------------------

Benediction

Juanita D. Bridwell, 90, of Wildwood, died Thursday, September 6, 2018, at Harbor Hospice, Beaumont. She was born on September 9, 1927, in Seminole, Oklahoma, to Ertis Poe and Clarence Horace Case.

Survivors include her children, Ertis Charmaine Garner, of Beaumont and Leslie Ann Carpenter and her husband, Bill, of Wildwood; grandchildren, James David Garner, of La Marque; Jessica Hamilton, of San Antonio; Megan Elaine Gay and her husband, Phillip, of, New York; Shane Austin Cox, of Rowlett; Matthew Clayton Cox and his wife, Jayme, of Rowlett; and Julie Annell Garner, of San Antonio; and great-grandchildren, River Ann Gay and Soren Jack Gay, of New York.

Juanita is preceded in death by her parents; son, Stephen “Buster” Cox; and her daughter, Joy Deen Hamilton.

Pallbearers

David Garner

Bill Carpenter

Matthew Cox

Shane Cox

Interment

Old Union Cemetery

Nacogdoches, Texas

Please sign Mrs. Bridwell's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com