A native and lifelong resident of Beaumont, he was born on March 30, 1962, to Donia Adelle Gautreaux Brown and George Arthur Brown. Lieutenant Brown was a thirty-two year veteran with the Beaumont Police Department, and was on the Departments 3rd Watch Patrol. He joined BPD's SWAT Team in 1995, and served as the SWAT Commander.

Lieutenant Brown is survived by his wife, Paige Brown, of Sour Lake; children, Kasey Sloan and her husband, Joshua, of Nederland; Taylor Brown and Colton Brown, both of Sour Lake; parents, Donia and George Brown, of Sour Lake; sister, Robin Buchholz and her husband, Skip, of Lumberton; granddaughter, Emma Sloan; and grandson to be, Jonah Sloan.

MY BROTHER, MY FRIEND, MY PROTECTOR

Ky Lynn Brown, Brother, Friend, Protector, Family Rock.

Ky was the Best Guy I knew, but reading some of these post, he was no "Little Angel". Growing up with Ky was fun, most of the time. He did get in trouble a lot because of the way he treated me. Tony D. said, "We got our butts tore up by George for being mean to Robin". The neighborhood boys, too many to name, were always into trouble. As told by Jimmy E., "Even when they were just taking a break drinking an Icee on a hot day at Jones 7-11, a lucky throw from a neighborhood nemesis with a fist size rock, bloodying Ky badly, leads to a fight." From shooting fireworks at a BPD patrol car leading to a High-Speed chase, "Borrowing" cases of beer from some railway cars, to playing basketball at MacArthur gym at night and getting hauled off to the Police Station, where he had to call our dad, life was eventful. I remember the times my mom would chase him around the house with a broom stick until he grabbed it from her one day. That's when the words "WAIT TILL YOUR DAD GETS HOME" were used, and they worked. But even as early as Elementary school, the teachers and school friends knew Ky was special, everyone knew that Ky was our protector. Such as saving Brenda from a circle of girls wanting to jump her, to making sure the boys knew “Hands Off” his cousins, Valeria and Selita. He was always watching out for everyone. He got that trait from our dad. He was a South Park Greenie through and through and loved the town of Beaumont. So, it was no big surprise that in 1985, Ky joined the BPD. and furthered his career by joining the SWAT Team in 1988, He loved his job and loved serving the People, but he wasn’t your typical run of the mill Police Officer. He was a Great People person and always made everyone feel like they mattered. He genuinely loved & respected everyone. I know throughout his years on the job, he got MANY family and friends out of Trouble. Thanks to Officer Burmaster, he even got our mom out of a speeding ticket.

Our family rock loved to spend time with his family, Kasey, Taylor, Colton, wife Paige, and most recently his granddaughter, Emma. He was well known for volunteering for anything for at our local football and baseball teams. During Kasey’s high school year, he loved to attend her volleyball and soccer games. He also spent time with Colton and Taylor during hunting season trying for that one “big” white tail.

Ky and I enjoyed spending time together at Lake Sam Rayburn, cruising in Erik Kvarme’s pontoon boat fishing for bass. There’s no doubt that he was one of the most outstanding officers and all-around family man.

There are countless more stories I could tell, but I think everyone knows Ky was Loved, Respected and will be missed by all!
