Patricia Ann Burgess, 74, of Beaumont, passed away Tuesday, June 20, 2017, at The Gardens-Altus Hospice, Beaumont. She was born on November 26, 1942, in New Albani, Indiana, to Marion and Clarence Sturgeon, and has been a resident of Beaumont since 1971. Pat raised and supported three children, working in the retail industry for many years.

Pat enjoyed going to church, spending time with her husband and family, photography, and bird watching.

Survivors include her daughters, Pam Merriman and her husband, Shane, of Nederland; Natalie LaVigne and her husband, Mike, of Beeville; and Nancy McFaddin and her husband, Andrew, of Bay City; stepsons, Bryan Burgess and his wife, Rebecca, of Rowlett; Kirby Burgess of Garland; and Todd Burgess and his wife, Deborah, of Kennard; grandchildren, Amanda Marie, Marion Seabring, Paul Casey, Neil Alan, Alex James, Renee Kathrin, Kaley Ann, Zachary James, Andrew Thomas, Natalee Ruth, JuAune Nicole, Zachary Shane, Tristan Blaine, and Ethan Todd; and great-grandchildren, Connor Blane and Miranda Marie.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Smiley Burgess.

Pat was raised in Houston and attended Jefferson Davis High School with her sister and brother.

*She had many pets over the years. A couple of her favorite
were Tubby, a cocker spaniel, and Peggy, a Guinea pig.*

Pat enjoyed photography and taking pictures of the grandkids. Other favorite pastimes included; crochet, board games, puzzles, and nature watching.

*She raised three beautiful daughters on her own
and worked many years in retail to support them.*

Pat enjoyed 25 years of marriage with her second husband, Smiley, where they resided in the West End of Beaumont.
