

Glenn Burns

November 17, 1946 - November 18, 2018

Celebrating the Life of

Glenn Burns

Wednesday, November 21, 2018 2:00 p.m.

Broussard's Chapel

Silsbee, Texas

Reverend Kyle Warren

Reverend Tony Moye

"Amazing Grace"

by Elvis Presley

Obituary

Reverend Tony Moye

"Just A Closer Walk with Thee"

by George Jones

Family Reflection

"Old Rugged Cross"

by Alan Jackson

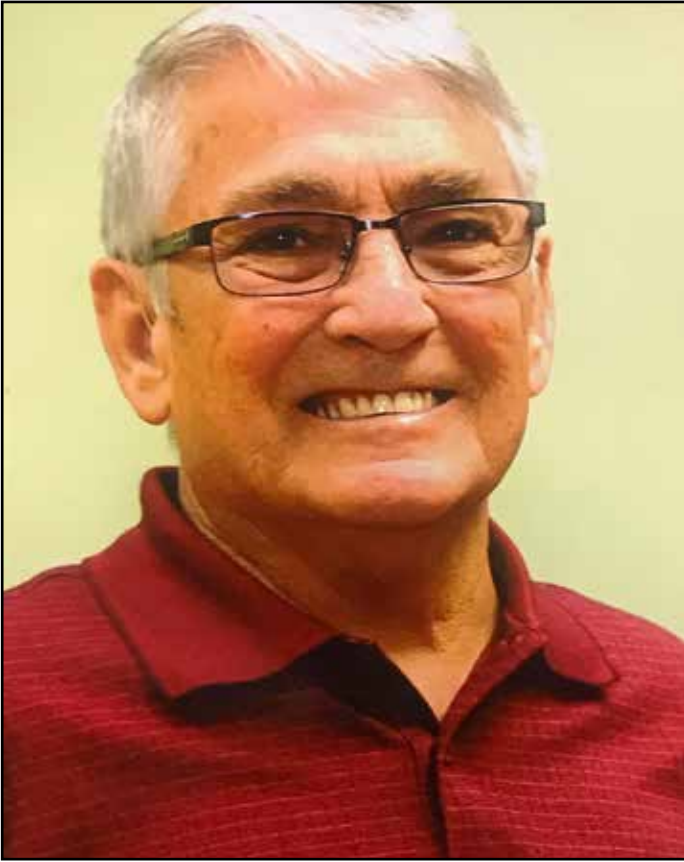

Message of Comfort

Reverend Kyle Warren

"If Tomorrow Never Comes"

by Garth Brooks

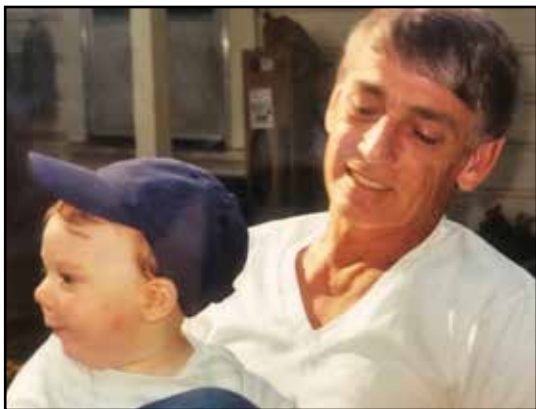

Closing Prayer

Glenn Burns, 72, of Kountze, died Sunday, November 18, 2018. He was born on November 17, 1946, in Hemphill, to Lue Whitmire and Herman R. Burns. Glenn retired as a supervisor at the papermill.

Survivors include his wife, Marsha Burns, of Kountze; sons, Garry Burns and his wife, Melinda, of Silsbee; Scott Burns and his wife, Layna, of Lumberton; and Michael Burns and his wife, Ashley, of Bridge City; grandchildren, Daniel Burns and his wife, Jessica; Justin Burns and his wife, Kayla; Cody Burns; Josh Burns and his fiancé, Bishop; Garrett Burns; Jaithen Burns; Hannah Burns; and Grayson Burns; brothers, Lonnie Burns, of Jasper; and Gene Burns and his wife, Leta, of Lumberton; and eleven great-grandchildren.

Glenn is preceded in death by his parents; and siblings, W.B. Burns, Herman J. Burns, Laura Lewis, and Elray Burns.

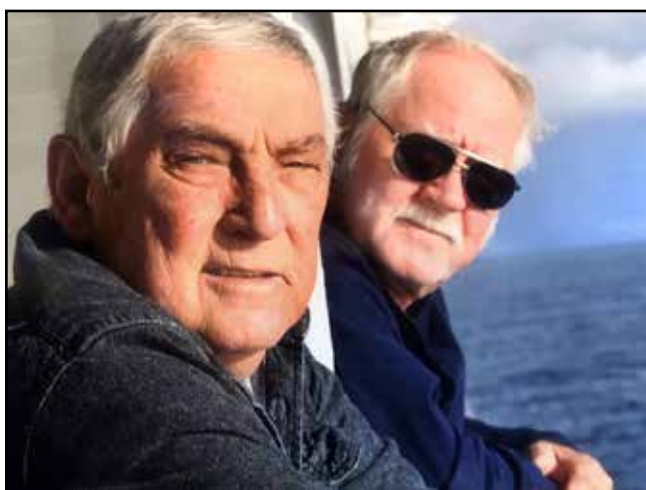

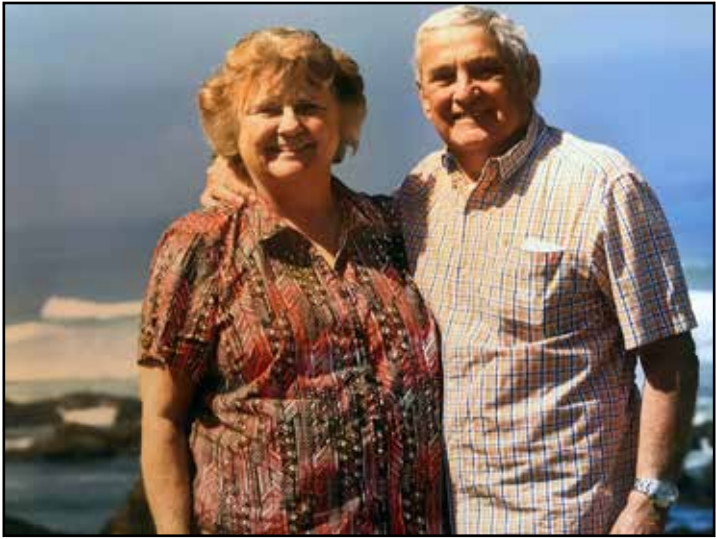

Pallbearers

Kenneth Ewing
Corey Flower
Daniel Burns
Justin Burns
Cody Burns
Josh Burns
Garrett Burns
Jaithen Burns

Honorary Pallbearer

Grayson Burns

Interment

Hardin Memorial Park
Silsbee, Texas

Broussards
Established 1889

Please sign Mr. Burns' guest book and share your memories at broussards1889.com