

We believe that all the ties of friendship and affection which knit us as one throughout our lives
do not unravel with death.

“Songs of the Angels”

Bob Dufford

*“May songs of the angels welcome you and guide you along your way.
May the smiles of the martyrs greet your own as darkness turns into day.
Every fear will be undone and death will be no more;
As songs of the angels bring you home Before the face of God.”*

Carlo Busceme III, 65, of Beaumont, died Friday, September 22, 2017. He was born on April 6, 1952, in Beaumont, to Charlene Fertitta Busceme and Carlo Joseph Busceme, Jr.

Carlo Busceme III had a magnetism that drew in people from every walk of life. The outpouring of love that we have seen since his passing is a testament to this. His beautiful personality created bonds of friendship that lasted from early childhood throughout his life. At each stage of his journey he has continued to develop and nurture lasting friendships. Fresh out of college, his first foray into the business world was the creation of Carlo's Restaurant and it was his personality that made it such a success. Carlo's hospitality permeated the restaurant and created a unique atmosphere that drew in people for many years. Many of the people with memories of Carlo are connected to the time they spent with him at the restaurant.

After he sold the restaurant he went to work at Texas Coffee Company and worked his way through every department until his father retired and he became president. His dad often joked that they both began their time at Texas Coffee Company sweeping the docks before progressing to the presidency. Besides his many responsibilities as president, one of the most important things that Carlo contributed was formulating many of the most popular TexJoy spice blends. Through his diligent leadership, the company has maintained integrity and social responsibility. When many companies look for ways to cut corners, a superior level of quality was never sacrificed under his leadership.

Carlo devoted his time and wisdom to many organizations including Sabine Area Restaurant Association, Sales and Marketing Executives Club, Magnolia Cemetery, Southeast Texas Arts Council, The Symphony of Southeast Texas, The Art Studio, Inc., The Art Museum of Southeast Texas, Beaumont Community Players and many more over the years.

And, one walk around his home would show the scope of his support towards the local art community with his extensive collection.

There was never a stranger, never a person who Carlo couldn't connect with. His capacity for empathy and compassion guided his every interaction, with employees, with fellow board members, with the server at a restaurant. Wherever or whenever you met him you were blessed with his undivided attention, respect, and enthusiasm.

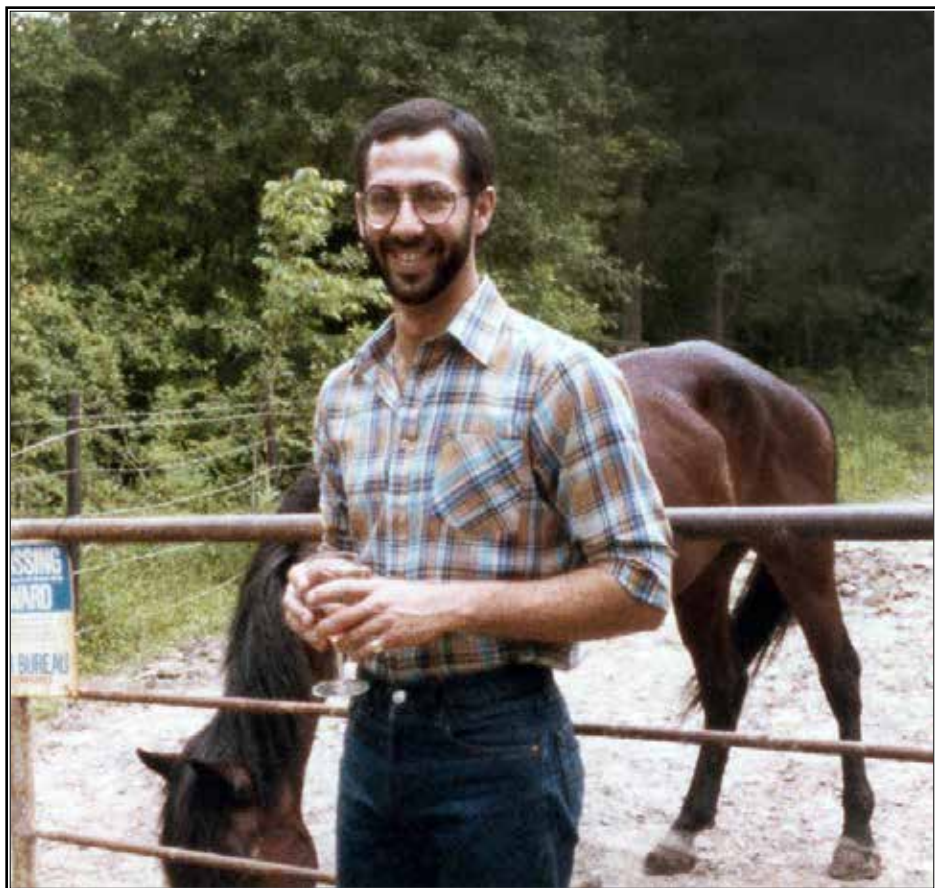

Carlo was a loving and devoted son, brother, father, uncle, and cousin. He was lovingly dedicated to his parents and to his son, Carlo, and his daughter-in-law, Larena. He was the person that every family member turned to for advice, support and especially laughs.

Carlo was a faithful Catholic who attended daily mass and was a weekly adorer in the Eucharistic Adoration Chapel at St. Anne Church. His faith sustained him and challenged him throughout his life. He continued to study and grow in his spiritual life. Many of his friends and family will always remember his passionate discussions and perpetual striving for knowledge.

Carlo attended St. Anne Catholic School and graduated from Msgr. Kelly Catholic High School in 1970. He graduated from Lamar University in 1974. But he continued to feed his thirst for knowledge in many fields throughout his life. He cultivated his skill as a pianist and expanded his musical abilities by learning other instruments. He took up painting and quickly filled his studio with his art projects. He took classes, went to workshops, attended seminars and lectures. He was interested in everything, never limiting himself.

The smile on his face and the light in his eyes lifted the spirits of all those around him. The best way for us to honor our memory of Carlo is to strive to follow his example. The world will be a better place if we are all a little like Carlo Busceme III.

Carlo is survived by his son, Carlo J. Busceme IV and his wife, Larena; parents, Charlene and Carlo J. Busceme, Jr.; brothers, Anthony Paul Busceme, Sr. and his wife, Karie; and Gregory Joseph Busceme, Sr. and his wife, Sheila; sister, JoRita Busceme Lyle and her husband, Steve; and many nieces and nephews.
