Reception of Holy Communion

For Catholics: As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity of confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible. (Code of Canon Law, Canon 916). A frequent reception of the sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

For other Christians: We welcome all Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common Baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions that separate us. We pray that these will lesson and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they all may be one" (John 17:21). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own churches. According to the Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of Holy Communion by Christians of these churches. (Canon 844§3).

Canon law provides Eucharistic sharing by other Christians who do not have full communion with the Catholic Church only when the diocesan bishop deems there is an exceptional circumstance and the following conditions are present: the other Christian on their own asks for the sacrament, they manifest a Catholic faith in the sacrament, are properly disposed and cannot approach a minister of their own community (Canon 844§4).

For non-Christians: We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. We have high regard for their traditions, friendship, and join them in promoting unity among all peoples. It is our joy to unite with them in praying for the peace and unity of the human family while respecting our common traditions, which do not include Eucharist sharing.

For all not receiving Communion: All who are not receiving Holy Communion are invited to express their prayerful desire for unity with God and with one another by approaching the altar at communion time with their hands crossed over their hearts. The minister will pray for this unity at the front of the Cathedral with all those in the communion line who have their hands crossed over their hearts.

Leslie Marie Myers Carmona, 60, of Beaumont, died Thursday, July 20, 2017. She was born on April 28, 1957, to Helen Theresa Williams Myers and Joseph Anthony Myers, in Port Arthur.

First and foremost, she loved and adored her son, Taylor. She always had a proud mother story to share. He was her life. Leslie was a serious supporter of animal rights and a true advocate.

She loved her dogs and cared for other rescue animals. Leslie was a self taught, skilled culinary wizard. Her kitchen was her kingdom and she loved to cater family gatherings. Leslie loved her family unconditionally. She was the person that was there for her family and friends anytime. Leslie was proud of her independence, and was not afraid to stand up for what was right. To quote her niece, Laneigh, "Nan, you light up my world. You are the best aunt anyone could ask for. I love you to heaven and back". It is the family's privilege to honor Leslie's wish to remember and celebrate her life together in love, laughter, with good food, spirits and dancing.

Survivors include her son, Taylor Carmona and his wife, Natalie, of Dallas; sisters, Diane Thibodeaux of Hamshire and Lynn Mann and her husband, Robert, of Mauriceville; brothers, John Myers and his wife, Susan, of Beaumont and Timothy Myers and his wife, Suzie, of Hamshire; and numerous nieces and nephews.
