Betty Anna "Dusti" Mackan Giffin Chu,

81, of China, died Wednesday, December 4, 2019, at Christus Hospital - St. Elizabeth, Beaumont. She was born on June 27, 1938, to Minnie Ruth Laidacker Mackan and Richard Blake Mackan, Sr., in Beaumont.

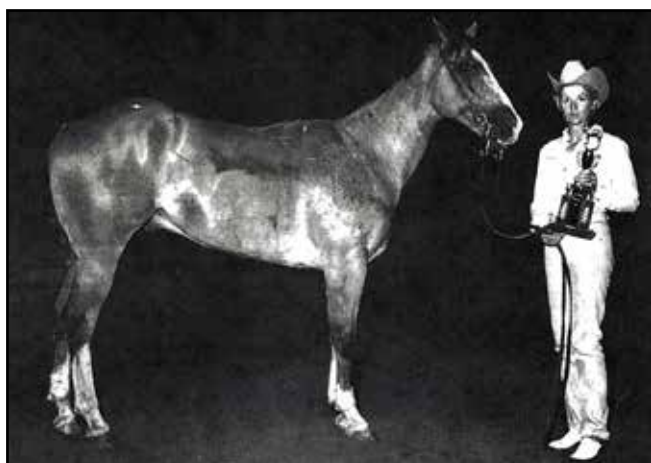

Dusti was a first-class business woman. She received a degree in journalism from Southwestern University in Georgetown. She owned and operated Dusty's Feed and Garden Center in Vidor for over 30 years and was the proud owner of Bar 20 Bar Ranch, formerly Riceland Farms, founded in 1936 by her father. Dusti was a model, former President of the Vidor Chamber of Commerce, and an AQHA Barrel Racing Champion as well as All-Around Senior Reining Champion with her horse named Hound.

Dusti was one tough lady with a generous, kind heart. She loved animals. She never turned away a stray or animal in need of help. She not only loved and cared for animals but all of God's creatures. She never met a stranger. "Blessed is the one who takes care of God's creatures whom they were given charge of." - St. Francis of Assisi

Survivors include her son, Lane Giffin and his wife, Kimberly; grandson, Blake Giffin; step-grandson, Joshua Brownlow and his wife, Morgan; step-granddaughters, Devon Brownlow and Kendra Brownlow; step-great-grandchildren, Brooks Brownlow and Gwendolyn Brownlow; brother, Richard Blake Mackan, Jr.; niece, Dana Mackan Trahan; nephew, Brandon Mackan; and her best friend and cowboy, Richard Roundtree along with many of God's creatures.

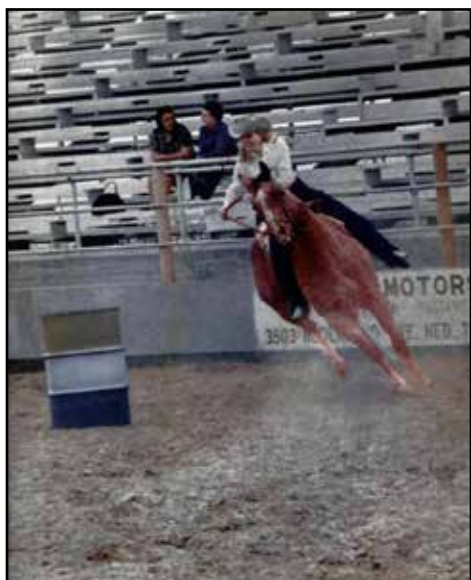

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Nick Chu; and baby sister, Sarah.
