

Irveene Elizabeth Clark

June 15, 1943 - October 23, 2018

Celebrating the Life of Irweene Elizabeth Clark
Saturday, October 27, 2018 2:00 p.m.
LaFond-Ardoin Funeral Home
Melville, Louisiana
Reverend Brian Johnston

“Take My Hand Precious Lord”
by Elvis Presley

Opening Remarks

“I Can Only Imagine”
by MercyMe

Family Remembrances

“How Great Thou Art”
by Alan Jackson

Message

Prayer

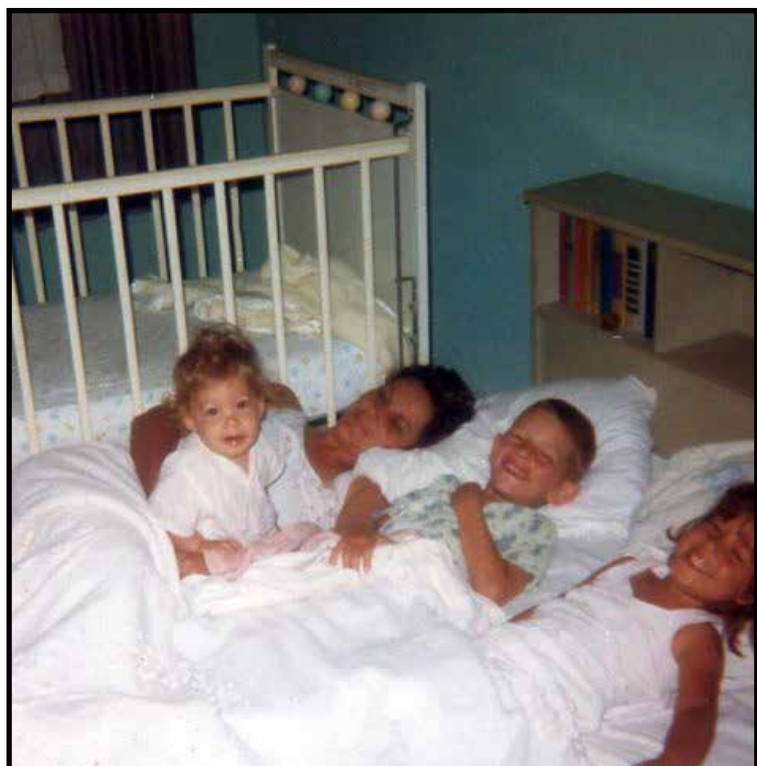

Irveene Elizabeth Clark, 75, of Nederland, died Tuesday, October 23, 2018. She was born on June 15, 1943, in Melville, Louisiana, to Lena Angona Brocato and Irving Frank Brocato.

Survivors include her son, Joseph H. Wiltz of Nederland; daughters, Jeanne Licatino and her husband, Larry, of Groves and Jackie Wiltz and her husband, David, of Hamshire; grandchildren, Danielle Metreyeon and her husband, Daniel and Danae Licatino; great-grandchildren, Tucker Metreyeon and Tilley

Metreyeon; sisters, Judy Goudeau and her husband, Darrell and Suzanne Miles and her husband, Doug; brother, Anthony “Butch” Brocato and his wife, Carol; numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Robert Clark; sister, Marilyn Rose “Toni” Brocato; and brother, Irving Merse Brocato.

The family would like to give a special thanks to Carmell Hergert for her loving and compassionate care.

Pallbearers

Larry Licatino

David Pheno

Daniel Metreyeon

Charles “Bubba” Traina

Benny Miles

Jeff Miles

Interment

The Methodist Cemetery

Melville, Louisiana

Please sign Mrs. Clark's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com