

Rosemary Cloud

February 8, 1938 - February 23, 2018

Celebrating the Life of
Rosemary Cloud
Monday, February 26, 2018 10:00 a.m.
Broussard's Chapel
Beaumont, Texas
Brother Robert "Scooter" Wenner, Officiating

"I Have No Mother Now"
by Lonesome Sisters

Obituary

"The Watcher"
Read by Blayde Valencia

Eulogy
Read by Blythe Valencia Reich

"Beulah Land"
by Jamey Johnson

Message

"Lead Me Home"
by Jamey Johnson

Rosemary Cloud was born in Toro, Louisiana on February 8, 1938. She entered Heaven's gate on February 23, 2018.

A consummate mother and homemaker, Rosemary loved preparing her dumplings and dressing for her family and friends. Over the years she collected a large library of cookbooks. Rosemary also enjoyed watching the food and cooking channels. She was an avid Rockets fan and enjoyed watching all sports on TV, as well as Dancing with the Stars. Rosemary also loved watching her grandson ride bulls. She retired from the Federal Bureau of Prisons in Beaumont and was a member of Rosedale Baptist Church.

Rosemary is survived by her brothers, Oscar Morrison and Bill Morrison; sister, Millie Morrison; daughters, Vicki Hartwick Allen and her husband, John; and Rebecca Valencia; sons, Randy Cloud and David Cloud; grandchildren, Brandy Upshaw and her husband, Kevin; Justin Hartwick and his wife, Jolie; Howdy Cloud; Heith Cloud; Blythe Valencia Reich and her husband, Michael; Katelyn Cloud; and Blayde Valencia; and five great-grandchildren, Kade Upshaw, Brianna Upshaw; Rowdy Hartwick, Rainy Hartwick, and Henley Cloud.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Oscar Clifton and Nancy Carroll Morrison; husband, Kaz Cloud; and daughter-in-law, Karen Ard Cloud.

The family gives Clairmont Nursing Home and Altus Hospice their greatest gratitude.

MOTHER'S CORNBREAD DRESSING

When my Grandmother died many years ago, my Mother had to take over this family favorite at holidays, which was the cornbread dressing. I have been watching her over the years and the last few years, I have had to take over this task. She did give her approval. Please know that she never measured anything, so I will just put in words the way that I make it.

Bake enough cornbread that will feed your size family. Crumble in bowl & cover with chicken broth or stock until soupy. Celery, green onions, bell pepper (my Mother did not saute) but I do in butter just so they are not too crunchy sometime. Pour in cornbread mixture. Add poultry seasoning, salt & pepper (Mama always said it needed lots of pepper). Mother did not care for sage. Boil eggs & chop up and add to cornbread mixture. It may seem too runny, but when you bake, it will absorb the liquid & will not turn out too dry. Pour in baking pan & bake 300-350 (depending on your oven) until brown on top (I don't have a time, just check on it periodically & stick knife in to see if done). Be sure & sample before you start baking to make sure enough seasoning, especially black pepper. If you are not cooking a turkey on the side, we sometime would boil a hen & de-bone & add meat to the dressing to bake & use the stock with your cornbread.)

I know this is not your usual idea of a recipe, but I wanted to share one of our Family favorites with you to honor and remember our Mother. She was a great cook. We hope you enjoy as much as we do.

Vicki Cloud Hartwick-Allen

The Watcher

By Margaret Widdemer

*She always leaned to watch for us
Anxious if we were late,
In winter by the window,
In summer by the gate.
And though we mocked her tenderly
Who had such foolish care,
The long way home would seem more safe,
Because she waited there.
Her thoughts were all so full of us,
She never could forget,
And so I think that where she is
She must be watching yet.
Waiting 'til we come home to her
Anxious if we are late
Watching from Heaven's window
Leaning from Heaven's gate.*

Pallbearers

Mrs. Cloud's Loving Sons and Grandsons

Entombment

Forest Lawn Memorial Park
Beaumont, Texas

Memorial Contributions

Alzheimer's Association
2909 Holcombe Boulevard
Houston, Texas 77025

American Diabetes Association
2400 Augusta Drive, Suite 175
Houston, Texas 77057

Please sign Mrs. Cloud's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com