PRAYER OF FAREWELL

Come to her aid, O saints of God;
Come meet her angels of the Lord.
Response: Receive her soul, O holy ones;
Present her now to God, Most High.

May Christ who called you, take you home,
and angels lead you to Abraham.
Response: Receive her soul, O holy ones;
Present her now to God, Most High.

Give her eternal rest, O Lord.
May light unending shine on her.
Response: Receive her soul, O holy ones;
Present her now to God, Most High.

I know that my Redeemer lives;
The last day I shall rise again.
Response: Receive her soul, O holy ones;
Present her now to God, Most High.

Ruby Olga Coker, 79, of Beaumont, died Wednesday, July 11, 2018. She was born on July 21, 1938, to Aldonse Trebels Mees and Francois Mees, in the Dutch East Indies.

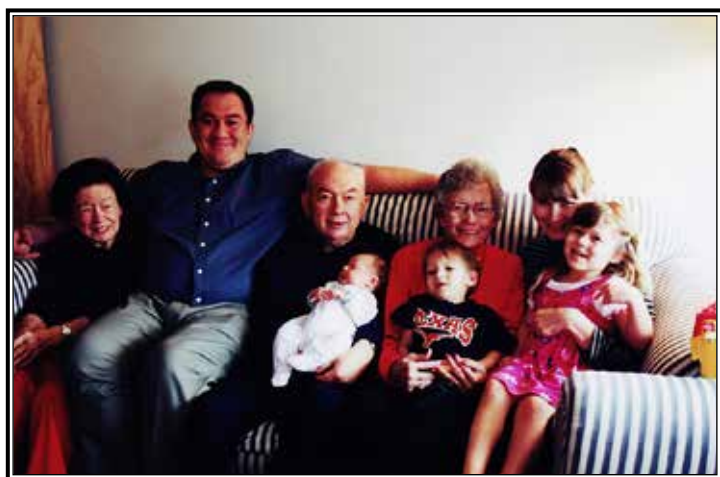

Ruby grew up in Holland after surviving World War II with her family in the Dutch East Indies. In her late teens, her family moved to Chicago to begin a new life in the United States. Ruby served as a registered nurse for many years in hospitals and with her husband, Dr. Leon Randle Coker. She was a longtime resident of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, and Gonzales, Louisiana. She made many trips to Tanlajas, Mexico with her family over twenty years to help the Huastec Indian population there with medical care. Ruby was a lifelong bridge player, a great source of friendship for all, a devout catholic, and was very active in bible studies within her parish.

Survivors include her son, Francis Coker and his wife, Catherine, of Beaumont; sisters, Wilhelmina Hinkel and her husband, Bob, of Hendersonville, North Carolina and Judy Condron of Wheaton, Illinois; grandchildren, Margaret, Randle, Patrick, Clare, Daniel, Elizabeth, Rebecca, Andrew, Colleen, and Laura Coker; and a host of other relatives and friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Dr. Leon Randle Coker; and sister, Ginger Hennessy.
