*P*amela Coleman, 65, of Nederland, died Friday, August 31, 2018. She was born on March 4, 1953, in Michigan, to Juliette Fornols and Gerald Balitzky.

Many people remember Pam from working at Safeway, K-Mart, Lowe's, and most recently Walmart.

Pam was a passionate Nederland Bulldog Football fan. Her favorite game was Mid County Madness. For the past 10 years she camped out overnight for tickets and was always first in line. In her spare time Pam loved to crochet, play Uno with her grandkids, watch cooking shows, and court shows.

Survivors include her mother, Juliette Dies of Port Acres; daughters, Julie Broussard and her husband, Tony, of Beaumont; April Haley; Caren Haley; and Summer Molina and her husband, Emedel, all of Nederland; thirteen grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; sister, Karen Miller; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her father, Gerald Balitzky; infant son, Paul Haley, Jr.; one brother; and sister, Gail Guidry.

LET IT BE

*When I find myself in times of trouble, Mother Mary comes to me
Speaking words of wisdom, let it be
And in my hour of darkness she is standing right in front of me
Speaking words of wisdom, let it be Let it be, let it be, let it be, let it be Whisper words of wisdom, let it be
And when the broken hearted people living in the world agree
There will be an answer, let it be
For though they may be parted, there is still a chance that they will see
There will be an answer, let it be*
