

Janice Cornelius
"Jan"

January 18, 1943 - October 9, 2019

Celebrating the Life of Janice Cornelius "Jan"

Saturday, October 12, 2019 4:00 p.m.

Broussard's Chapel
Silsbee, Texas
Doctor Mark Carpenter

"How Great Thou Art"
by Elvis Presley

Opening Prayer

Obituary

Family Reflections

"Tell Me the Stories of Jesus"
by The Gaithers

Message of Comfort

Closing Prayer

"Amazing Grace"
by Elvis Presley

Janice “Jan” Marie Cornelius, 76, of Silsbee, died Wednesday, October 9, 2019, at Silsbee Oaks Health Care. She was born on January 18, 1943, in Abilene, to Ima Ruth Carter Griffing and William Kinslow Griffing.

Survivors include her husband, Ken Cornelius; son, Kenneth Glen Cornelius and his wife, Amy, of Chattanooga, Tennessee; daughter, Deborah Jan O’Conner and her husband, Robbie, of Polson Montana; sister, Sandy Ragland and her husband, Jack, of Lockney, Texas; six grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

Jan is preceded in death by her parents; and two sisters, Betty Griffing and Bessie Elder.

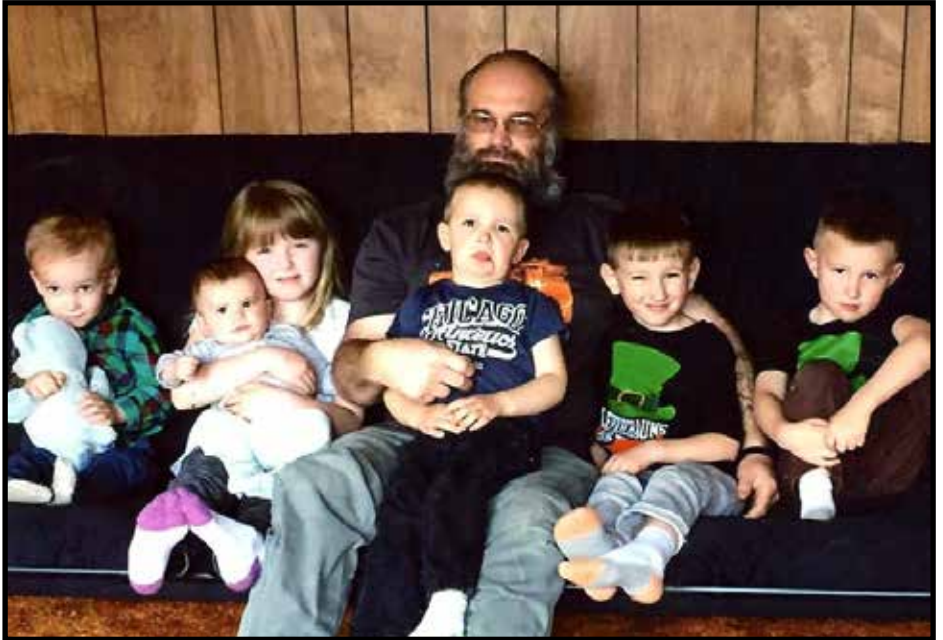

A private family committal was held at Broussard's Crematorium.

Please sign Mrs. Cornelius' guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com