James Joseph Coudrain, 75, of Kountze, passed away on Sunday, October 6, 2019, after a long battle with cancer. He was born on November 20, 1943, in Silsbee, to Bessie Ella Davidson Coudrian and James Joseph Coudrian, Sr. James was a United States Army Veteran.

In 1966, he went to work for the Paper Mill in Evadale as a millwright, James retired after forty years. He loved to farm, travel, and fish. James will be missed by all who knew him.

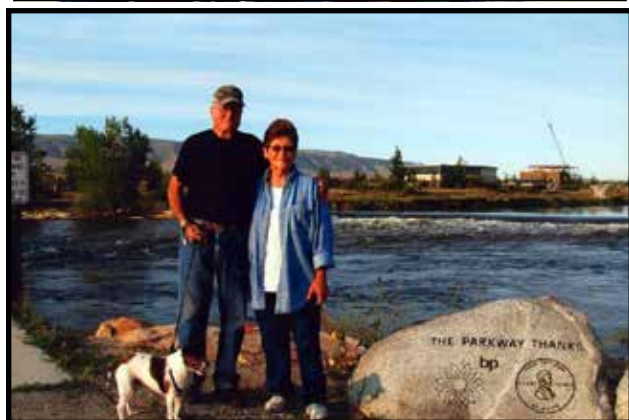

Survivors include Judy Swift and family; three sons, Buster Coudrain and his wife, Cotie, of Mauricville; John Coudrain of Amarillo; and Jerry Coudrain of Baytown; daughter, Sylvia Powell of Palestine, West Virginia; granddaughter, Caroline; sister, Vernie Burks of Mauriceville; and numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

James is preceded in death by his parents; sisters, Fahy Strawther, Laverne Coudrain, Bessie Coudrian, and Mary Jane Burkes; and brother, Charlie Wayne.

We were so grateful for Dr. Shariq Ahmad, American Renal in Beaumont and Heart of Texas Hospice and staff, Linda and Kellie McGraw, who helped James and family through the final walk.
