

A black and white portrait of a woman with short, dark, curly hair, smiling and looking slightly to the left. She is wearing a light-colored, possibly white, top. The portrait is framed by a thin black border.

Mildred Faye Crain

October 29, 1931 - March 14, 2017

Celebrating the Life of Mildred Faye Crain

Friday, March 17, 2017 11:00 a.m.

Broussard's Chapel
Kountze, Texas
Reverend Frank Aragon

"Put Me in Your Pocket"
by Merle Haggard

Opening Prayer and Obituary

"Old Rugged Cross"
by Alan Jackson

Message of Comfort
Reverend Frank Aragon

Closing Prayer

"Amazing Grace"
by The Statler Brothers

Mildred Faye Crain, 85, of Kountze, died Tuesday, March 14, 2017. She was born on October 29, 1931, in Monticello, Mississippi, to Ollie Lee Conerly and Joseph Cullen Smith.

Mrs. Crain was a graceful Christian lady, who loved her husband and family and was always ready to have her children and grandchildren around. She was active in her church, teaching children and playing the piano. Mildred enjoyed making many costumes for plays. She also liked to crochet and did beautiful work.

Survivors include her husband, Aaron Crain of Kountze; children, Rhonda Taylor; David Simmons and his wife, Mary; and Danny Crain; grandchildren, Steve Garlaska, Jason Garlaska, Rachael Larson, Misty Martin, Keith Simmons, Josh Simmons, Jamie Ayres; siblings, Ray Smith, Dale Smith, Evelyn Randall, and Christine Brown; and numerous nieces, nephews, and friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents; son, Roger Simmons; grandson, Justin Simmons; siblings, Joseph Smith, Jr., Robert Smith, Annie Reed, Lucille Frussell, James A. Smith, Racheal Smith, Darlene Torok, and Joe Troy Smith.

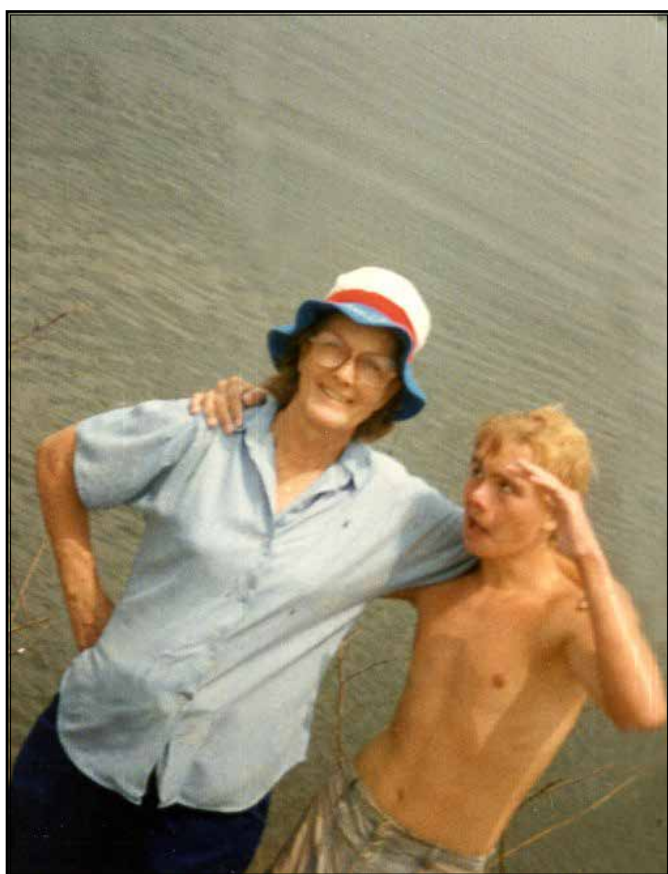

Memories of You

I remember your love,
your smile,
your laughter.

In my heart you will always be.
Because of your love,
your smile,
your laughter~
my memories of you are pieces of me.

Pallbearers

Joshua Simmons

Jason Garlaska

Steve Garlaska

Keith Simmons

Randy Brown

Harry Brown

Interment

Jordan Cemetery

Honey Island, Texas

Please sign Mrs. Crain's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com