Louis Elmo Dailey, Jr., 72, of High Island, died Friday, September 15, 2017. He was born July 31, 1945, in Galveston, to Jenny Fowler Dailey and Louis E. Dailey, Sr. He was a lifetime resident of the High Island area, and retired as a pipefitter.

Louis served in the United States Army and was a decorated Vietnam era veteran, having received many medals, including a Purple Heart. He especially loved his horses and taking care of his cattle. Most of all, he loved his family and family events.

Survivors include daughter, Tina Lynn Henderson, of San Antonio; brother, Tommy Dailey, of Carthage; sisters, Margie Shanley, of High Island; and Juanita Dailey, of Winnie; four grandchildren, Troynell Henderson, Charles Henderson, Macolm Henderson and Martin Henderson; nieces and nephews, Tammy Hooks and James Dailey and his wife, Shawna; April Anthony and her husband, Dalton; L. T. Dailey; Christy Shanley; Jack Dailey and his wife, Darla; Skylor Dailey and his wife, Jackie; several great nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by parents; brother, James “Red” Dailey; and a grandson.
