Theron Gaylon Dunaway, 87, of Winnie, died Saturday, August 3, 2019, at Baptist Hospitals of Southeast Texas in Beaumont. He was born on January 29, 1932, to Lucy Belle Stokes and Thomas Delmar Dunaway, in Eagle Pass.

Gaylon was in the United States Navy during the Korean War and achieved the rank of Yeoman Second Class. He was the founder and owner of T. Gaylon Dunaway, CPA, which later became the Certified Public Accounting Firm of Dunaway and Willis, and received a fifty-year recognition from the state of Texas for his years of service. He was a faithful member of First Baptist Church of Winnie, where he served as a deacon, choir director, treasurer, and Sunday School teacher during his time there. Over the years, he was also an active member in the community, where he served as a member of the school board, on the bank board of directors, Texas Rice Festival treasurer, and much more.

Survivors include his wife of sixty-two years, Mary Louise Dunaway, of Winnie; son, Scott Carl Dunaway, and his wife, Analyn, of Negros Occidental, Philippines; daughter, Lisa Gayle Franzen, and her husband, Steve, of Winnie; grandchildren, Brandon Dunaway and his wife, Kylee; Jason Dunaway and his wife, Monica; Kirbi Tharp and her husband, Matt; Shelby Franzen; Mallory Simon and her husband, Sammy; and Alexandria Dunaway; great-grandchildren, Charlie Dunaway, Canyon Dunaway, Cambrie Dunaway, Emme Tharp and Maeve Tharp; brother, C.E. Dunaway; nephews, Tommy and Carel Dunaway; and niece, Lynda Young.

He is preceded in death by his parents, T. D. and Lucy Belle “Dude” Dunaway.
