“All Things Bright and Beautiful”

REVELATION AND ADORATION

All Things Bright and Beautiful 45
ALL THINGS BRIGHT

Refrain

All things bright and beau - ti - ful, all crea - tures great and small,

Last time

all things wise and won - der - ful, the Lord God made them all.

1. Each lit - tle flow'r that o - pens, each lit - tle bird that sings,
2. The pur - ple - head - ed moun - tain, the riv - er run - ning by,
3. The cold wind in the win - ter, the pleas - ant sum - mer sun,
4. He gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell

To refrain

He made their glow - ing col - ors, He made their ti - ny wings, the sun - set and the morn - ing that bright - ens up the sky.
the ripe fruits in the gar - den: He made them ev - ry one,
how great is God Al - might - y, who has made all things well.

WJ Everett III, 57, of Winnie, died Sunday, December 16, 2018. He was born to Dixie Lea Nichols and WJ Everett, Jr., on October 2, 1961, in Bryan, Texas.

WJ is from pioneer Texas stock. His ancestors were either lawmen or ranchers. WJ's great grandfather was named Wiley James and served as sheriff of Llano County over a hundred years ago. The next generation became "modernized" and dropped the Wiley James in lieu of just using WJ Everett. WJ Everett, Sr was a rancher. WJ Everett, Jr was a Chief Deputy for Brazos County, Texas, and later started the Private Investigation firm named WJ Everett and Associates.

WJ Everett III became both a rancher and a private investigator. His bravery was seen as first a bull rider for over twenty years and later as he galloped over fences in Ireland, Virginia, and Texas. An international traveler and romantic, he proposed marriage to Kelley Colleen Kays in a castle in Ireland. Together they made their farm Falconwood an equestrian center for the breeding of sport horses and riding in the sport of Eventing, also known as the triathlon for the horse.

WJ also loved art, movies, and athleticism. He acted in several movies including "A Woman of Independent Means", with Sally Fields and "The Evening Star". WJ painted in the style of modern abstract and impressionism. He was always the first person at the gym in the wee hours of the morning. Motocross was another hobby that filled his need for adrenalin!

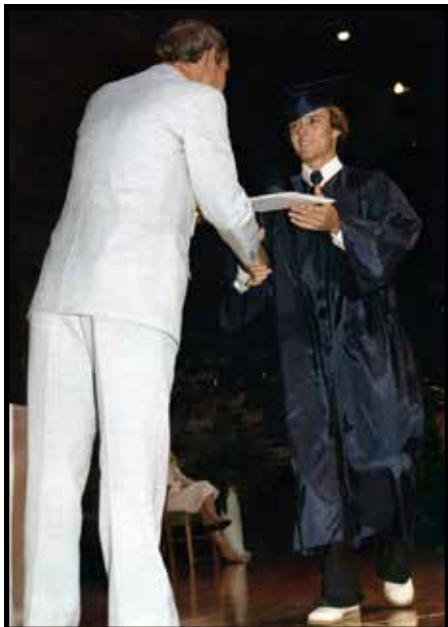

WJ was a great listener, a nurturer and had a bounty of close friends. His greatest love was animals - all kinds. He was a cat whisperer, dog spoiler, and loved his ducks, geese, chickens, and peacocks. The horses he bred and raised will carry on his love of riding. This year WJ and his wife, veterinarian Kelley Kays, started Beaumont Pets Alive, a nonprofit dedicated to saving the lives of dogs and cats. Over nine hundred animals have been saved in 2018, the first year of operation.

Survivors include his wife, Kelley Kays, D.V.M., of Winnie; sister, Vickie Everett Tway and her husband, William J. Tway, Jr., of Houston; niece, Isabella Lea Tway, of Houston; and aunt, Doris Louvayne Everett Herzog, of Bryan.

He is preceded in death by his parents.
