Susie Fontenot, 64, of China, died, Saturday, November 3, 2018, at Christus Hospital-St. Elizabeth, Beaumont. She was born on June 19, 1954, in Beaumont, to Margaret Ellis and John Boothe. Susie was a sales manager for Sinclair Broadcasting.

She was known as #2 by her sisters because she's the middle sister. She loved crafting, especially making wreaths, and she was awesome at it. She also loved to bake and always made plenty of desserts for the kids at church when they had a bake sale. When Thanksgiving came, she had a bake-a-thon from then til Christmas, so she could share her goodies with everyone. Susie was a people person, which made her great at advertising and she loved it. She was a member of Our Lady of Sorrows Altar Society and the Beaumont Rotary Club. She was an instrumental part of running the Soapbox Derby every year. She was always tending her flowers in her yard and loved the beauty it brought the world. She was a fantastic Mom and an even better MiMi. She will be greatly missed by all those she touched, especially her family.

Mom lived her life to help others and is embodied by the mission statement she wrote for the family years ago.

"Fontenot Family Mission"

The mission of our family is to loved God and love one another by faithfully submitting to His will and abiding in Him. We will continually seek His wisdom to guide us along the path He has laid out for us. We will do this humbly and with servant hearts, promoting a spirit of contentment as we strive to do His will.

She is survived by her son, Ron Fontenot and his wife, Sarah, of Hanahan, South Carolina; daughter, Karen Halsell and her husband, James, of China; sisters, Shirley Jett and her husband, Ken, of Chandler and Jaynie Boothe, of Longview; and grandchildren, Moira Fontenot, Braeden Halsell and Emma Halsell.

She is preceded in death by her parents; and grandchildren, Jeffrey Fontenot and Peyton Fontenot.
