Irene Lynette Leatherwood

Fregia passed away in the early morning hours of August 15, 2017, at The Harbor House Hospice of Beaumont. Ms. Fregia, a longtime resident of Winnie, was born to Irene and Jim Leatherwood of Lumberton, on May 30, 1937, where she grew up.

Throughout her life, she loved salt water fishing and camping along the coast with friends and relatives. In the mid-1980's, she opened a restaurant in Winnie, "Lynette's Coffee Cup", where she served up wonderful Cajun dishes and hot coffee every day to many satisfied customers. She loved to cook and the loved to share her fare with everyone even after the restaurant closed and often had relatives over the holiday meals.

She is survived by her husband, Wesley Fregia; sisters, Celia Smith of Lumberton and Carol Glanert of EuClaire, Wisconsin; nephew, James A. Vaughan of Corpus Christi; and nieces, Rita Wilson and her husband, Terry, of Tarkington and Betty Faye Weaver of Sour Lake. She will also be missed by her four stepchildren; and a number of nieces, nephews, and many friends who all loved her dearly.

Mrs. Fregia is preceded in death by her brothers, James, George, Roy, William, and John Leatherwood; and sisters, Eunice Smith and Madge Nichols.

FOOTPRINTS

One night a woman had a dream.
She dreamed she was walking along the beach with the Lord.
Across the sky flashed scenes from her life.
For each scene, she noticed two sets of footprints in the sand:
one belonging to her, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of her life flashed before her,
she looked back at the footprints in the sand.
She noticed that many times along the path of her life
there was only one set of footprints.
She also noticed that it happened
at the very lowest and saddest times in her life.

This really bothered her and she questioned the Lord about it.
“Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you,
you’d walk with me all the way.
But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times
in my life, there is only one set of footprints.
I don’t understand why when I needed you most
you would leave me.”

The Lord replied,
“My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you.
During your times of trial and suffering,
when you see only one set of footprints,
it was then that I carried you.”
