Anchors Aweigh
U.S. Navy Theme Song

Verse 1

Anchors Aweigh, my boys,
Anchors Aweigh!
Farewell to college joys,
We sail at break of day-ay-ay-ay.
Through our last night on shore,
T'where ere we toll,
Until we meet once more,
Here's wishing you a happy voyage home!

Verse 2

Stand, Navy out to sea,
Fight! Our battle cry!
We'll never change our course,
So vicious foe, steer shy!
Roll out the TNT, Anchors Aweigh!
Sail off to victory and sink their
Bones to Davy Jones...hooray!

Repeat Verse 1

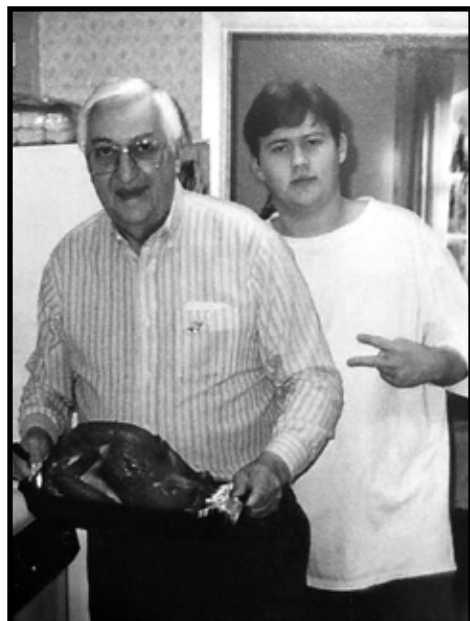

Jack Edward Galloway, 86, of Sugar Land, formerly of Beaumont, died October 13, 2018, at Methodist Sugar Land Hospital, of natural causes.

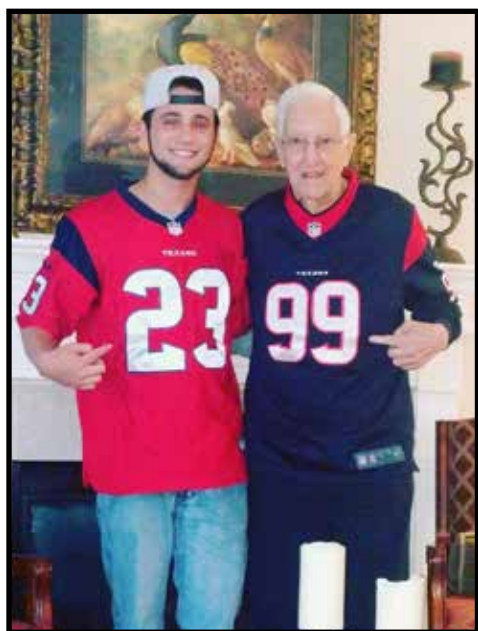

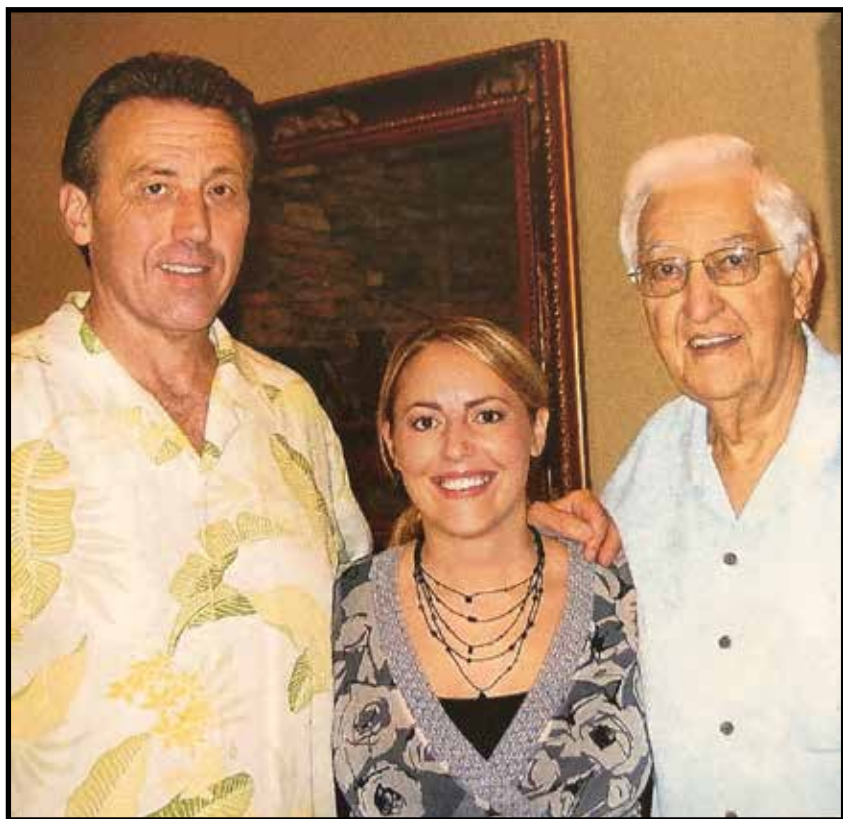

Jack was born in Jacksonville, Texas, in 1932 to Harvey and Diana Galloway. He graduated from South Park High School. Jack served in the United States Navy from 1951-1953 in Pensacola, Florida. He met his wife, Joan, in 1950, and they courted through his time in the service and were married May 29, 1953. Above all, he loved his family the most. Jack never missed an opportunity to make everyone laugh, especially all of his grandchildren. He had a gentle spirit and a giving heart. Jack owned Heritage Real Estate and Galloway's Pork House in Beaumont where he was known for his smoked sausage, boudain, and hog head cheese, while Joan was happily engaged in real estate.

He is survived by his wife and three sons; Glenn; Gregory and his wife, Sissi; Gary and his wife, Jennifer; and Jack's sister, LaNelle and her husband, Pete Cuniff; his eleven grandchildren; fourteen great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

A family committal was held at Broussard's Crematorium, Beaumont.
