

Dollie Callaway Garza

November 3, 1920 - February 25, 2019

Celebrating the Life of Dollie Gallaway Garza
Friday, March 1, 2019 11:00 a.m.
Broussard's Chapel
Beaumont, Texas

“There Will Be a Day”

Opening Prayer

Personal Remembrances
Reverend David Cross

“It Is Well With My Soul”

Message
Reverend Robby Ridgeway

“When The Roll is Called Up Yonder”

A Time For Sharing

Closing Prayer

Dollie Gallaway Garza, 98, of Beaumont, died Tuesday, February 25, 2019. She was born on November 3, 1920, in Goose Creek, to Ebbie Clayton and John Parker. She retired as a Registered Nurse from Baptist Hospitals of Southeast Texas, Beaumont, after twenty-nine years of employment.

Dollie is survived by her husband, George Garza, of Beaumont; and daughters, Jennie Dixon and her husband, Curtis F., Jr. and Brenda Jo Elliot and her husband Wayne, all of Beaumont; grandchildren, John Dixon, of Beaumont and Steve Dixon and his wife, Dianna, of Silsbee; and great-grandchildren, John Tyler Dixon, of Nederland, Mason Paul Dixon, of Silsbee, and Jessica Dixon Campbell and her husband, Brian, of Hawaii.

She is preceded in death by her first husband, Paul Gallaway; and stepson, Sonny Garza.

Pallbearers

Lyle Goines
James Frazier
John Dixon
Stephen Dixon
John Tyler Dixon
Mason Dixon

Interment

Forest Lawn Memorial Park
Beaumont, Texas

Memorial Contributions

Amelia Baptist Church
8055 Brighton Street
Beaumont, Texas 77707

~

Hotel Dieu Scholarship Fund for Nurses
c/o Lamar University Foundation
P.O. Box 11500
Beaumont, Texas 77710

Please sign Mrs. Garza's guestbook and share your memories at broussards1889.com