

Charles L. Gillespie

June 12, 1935 - March 9, 2017

Celebrating the Life of
Charles L. Gillespie
Sunday, March 12, 2017 1:00 p.m.
Westgate Memorial Baptist Church
Beaumont, Texas
Dr. Raymond McHenry

“The Old Rugged Cross”
Congregation

Scripture

Prayer

“10,000 Reasons”
Congregation

Eulogy

Memorial Video

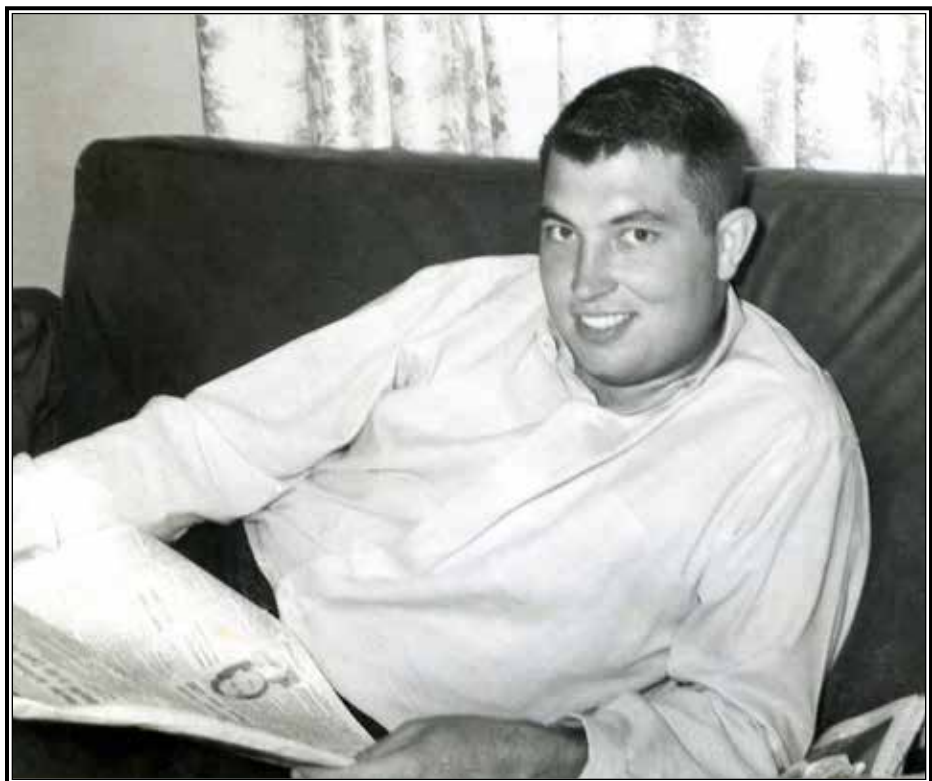

Closing Prayer

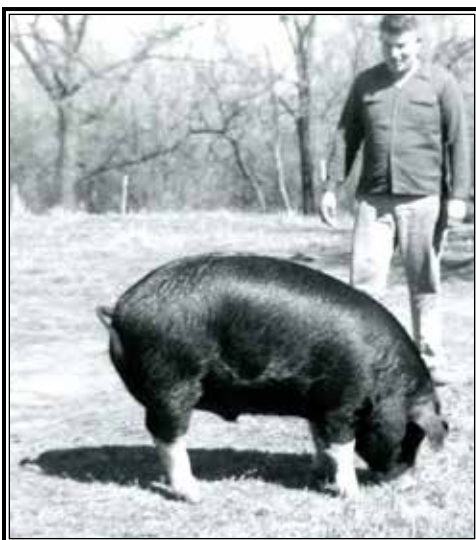

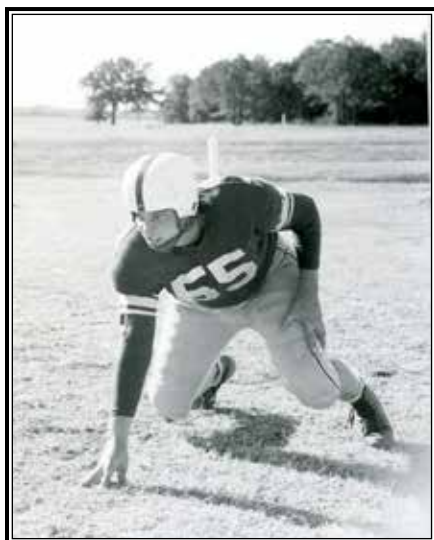

Charles L. Gillespie, 81, of Beaumont, died Thursday, March 9, 2017, in Beaumont. He was born on June 12, 1935, in Waurika, Oklahoma, and had been a longtime resident of Beaumont. Charles was a retired grocery representative, softball coach, and BISD substitute teacher known by many as "Mr. G". He was a longtime key member of the YMBL.

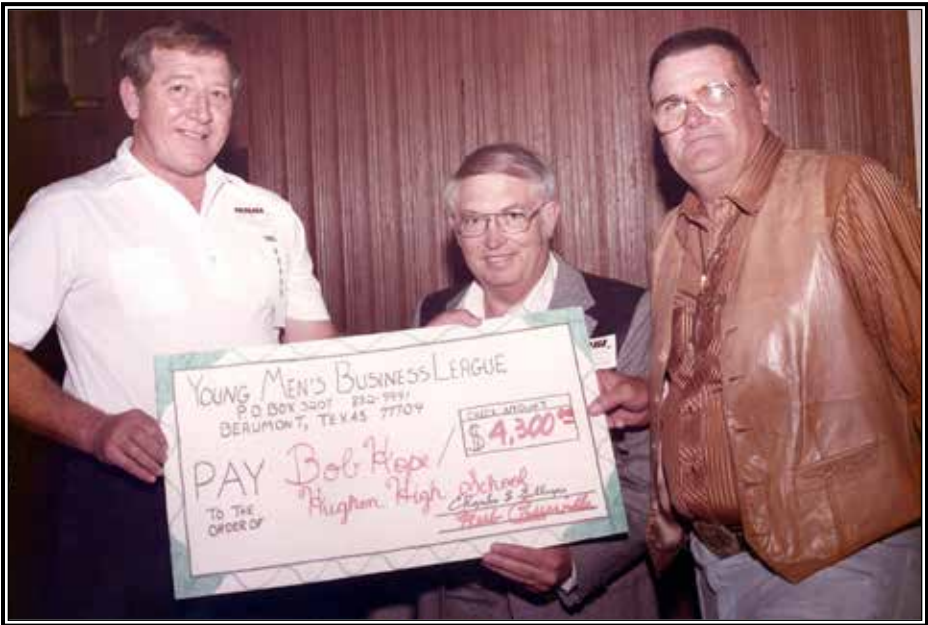

He is survived by his daughters, Sharon Dodson and her husband, Mike and Betty Drummond and her husband Dave, all of Beaumont; grandchildren, Michelle Messina and her husband, Mark; Melissa McIntosh and her husband, Nate; Charles Michael Dodson and his wife, Allison; and Rebekah Drummond; and great-grandchildren, Hannah Clark, Grace McIntosh, Nora McIntosh, Olivia Dodson, and Nathan Michael McIntosh.

Charles is preceded in death by his wife of sixty years, Lois Gillespie.

Pallbearers

Mark Messina
Nate McIntosh
Charles Dodson
Matthew Hunt

Interment

Magnolia Cemetery
Beaumont, Texas

Memorial Contributions

Westgate Memorial Baptist Church
6220 Westgate Drive
Beaumont, Texas 77706

Please sign Mr. Gillespie's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com