Mack Golson, 82, of Beaumont, died Thursday, September 13, 2018, at Baptist Hospitals of Southeast Texas, Beaumont. He was born on November 6, 1935, to Barbara Watson Golson and James Lewis Golson, in Mobile, Alabama.

Mack moved to Beaumont as a young man at 15 and attended French High School, where he met the love of his life & best friend, Dolores Goode, soon to be Golson. Upon graduating high school, he went on to work for Sun Oil Company at different locations.

He and his bride eventually settled back in Beaumont. Mack and Dolores began their family while he worked and went to Lamar College. Mack started his professional career at East Texas Motor Freight, then Merchants Motor Freight and finally Brinks, where he retired in 2002.

After retirement was when the real fun began. They began traveling with the Don & Claire Covington all around the country where many special memories were made. They enjoyed visits and special events with lifelong friend, Terrell & Joanie Sanders. Mack enjoyed helping to raise and make memories with all of his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. His favorite pastimes were reading, watching his grandchild accomplish all of their goals and dreams, and of course Blue Bell ice cream.

We would like to give Leonard Fancher a huge thank you for his true and loyal friendship since childhood. Leonard's labor of love and support for Mack and the family, during Mack's time in the hospital, is a debt that can never be repaid. He was always there with conversation and coffee in his hand for Mack.

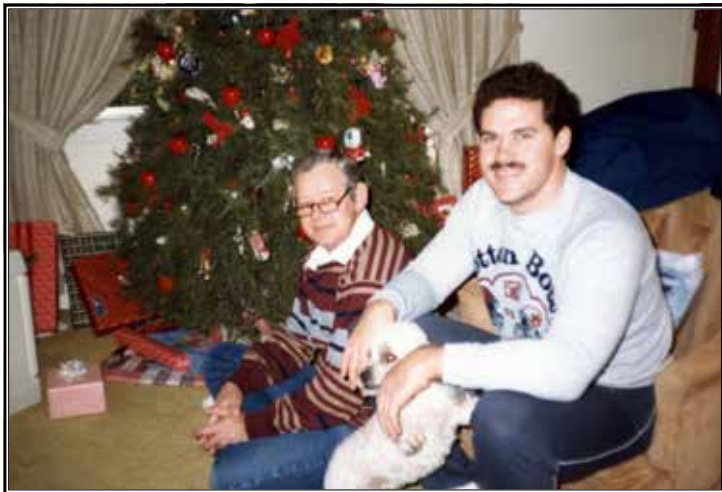

Survivors include his wife of sixty-three years, Dolores Golson; sons, Kyle Golson and his wife, Sheila and Craig Golson; daughter, Kristen Golson Fuller; grandchildren; Ty Golson; Amie Shahan and her husband, Travis; Caraline Golson and her fiancé, Jacob Bush; Savanna Golson; Samuel Golson; and Garrison Fuller; great-grandchildren, Ella, Aubrie, and Jackson Shahan; extended family, Dana Golson, Michael Fuller, Theresa Thornhill, Kelly and Todd Rogas, and Andrew Rogas; sister, Barbara Wooten and her husband, Ralph, of Nashville, Indiana; and sister-in-law, Barbara Goode.

He is preceded in death by his parents.
