First Reading

Psalm 121

David Pierre Doucet

I lift up my eyes to the hills—from where will my help come?
My help comes from the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

He will not let your foot be moved;
he who keeps you will not slumber.
He who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

The LORD is your keeper;
the LORD is your shade at your right hand.
The sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.

The LORD will keep you from all evil;
he will keep your life.
The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time on and forevermore.

Second Reading 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18 Angelica Joy Doucet

But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Gospel Reading John 15:9-15 Elizabeth Miller

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father.

Remembrances

Homily

Hymn

"Safe in the Arms of Jesus"

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Closing Prayer

Father of all, we pray for you and for those whom we love but see no longer. Grant to them eternal rest. Let perpetual light shine upon them. May Joy's soul and the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Commendation

Into your hands, O merciful Savior, we commend your servant Joy. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, a sheep of your own fold, a lamb of your own flock, a sinner of your own redeeming. Receive Joy in to the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen.

Hymn

“What a Friend We Have In Jesus”

Joy Boyd Goodale, 74, of Beaumont, died Tuesday, August 15, 2017, at Harbor Hospice, Beaumont. She was born on January 10, 1943, to Dorothy South Boyd and Jolly Boyd, in Santa Maria, California.

Joy was a beautiful lady who was loved and admired by many. She had a way about her that drew people to her. Friends have said that they instantly felt like “family” after meeting her and experiencing her gracious demeanor. She has been described as a classy Southern Belle with a touch of West Coast flair. She was a cherished wife, mother and grandmother and will be sorely missed.

Survivors include her husband, David Goodale; son, Boyd Byers of Sevirville, Tennessee; daughters, Gayla Doucet and her husband, Wesley, of Beaumont and Karin Magar and her husband, Steve, of Bakersfield, California; grandchildren, David Doucet, Angelica Joy Doucet, Lindsay Magar, Laurel Magar, and Brody Byers; and beloved niece, Jill Golden and her husband, Joe, of San Antonio.

She is preceded in death by her parents and brother, Steve Boyd.
