Sandi Carbaugh Goodwin went to be with her heavenly family, February 14, 2018. Sandi was born on July 16, 1943, in Franklin, Pennsylvania, to Betty Graham Carbaugh and Donald Raymond Carbaugh.

Her talents were many; photographer, seamstress, computer whiz, and crafter. When it came to fashion she had a sense of style all her own, sort of a gypsy soul. She was a spiritual person with a love for God and her country. She loved her family and friends. Life is richer for knowing her. Sandi is survived by her loving husband of fifty-one years, John R. Goodwin; son, Brandon Jay Goodwin and his wife, Stephanie; brothers, "Donnie" Carbaugh and his wife, Barbara and "Ron" Carbaugh and his wife, Chris; sister, Jane Carbaugh Hargett; aunt, Mary Ann Gilbert; precious granddaughter, Tori Goodwin; and very special friend, Lisa Thompson, of Houston.

Sandi was preceded in death by her son, Mitchell McFarland; and her parents, Donald and Betty Carbaugh.
