Dakota Renee Goss, 19, of Silsbee, died Friday, April 28, 2017. She was born on January 2, 1998, in Beaumont, to Nancy Lynette Pickett Williford and Gary Paul Goss. Dakota was a 2016 graduate of Silsbee High School and was attending Sam Houston State University in Huntsville.

Dakota was a smart and beautiful young lady. She was studying for a degree in Interdisciplinary Agricultural, was in the Freshman Leadership Program, a member of Sigma Alpha Sorority, Student Government Association, Dean's List, and the Honor Society. Dakota was captain of both State Qualifying Swine Quiz Bowl Teams in 2015 and 2016 for 4H. She was Captain of the Leaders for Life team as junior competitor as well Champion of many shows she competed in, especially with her goat. Dakota was the recipient of the Bronze, Silver, and Gold Star awards and helped build award winning parade floats and award winning stall award decorations for her 4H Club. She was a mentor to the younger kids that became members through helping them learn to show livestock, teaching them parliamentary procedure, and always helping them and their parents with anything they needed.

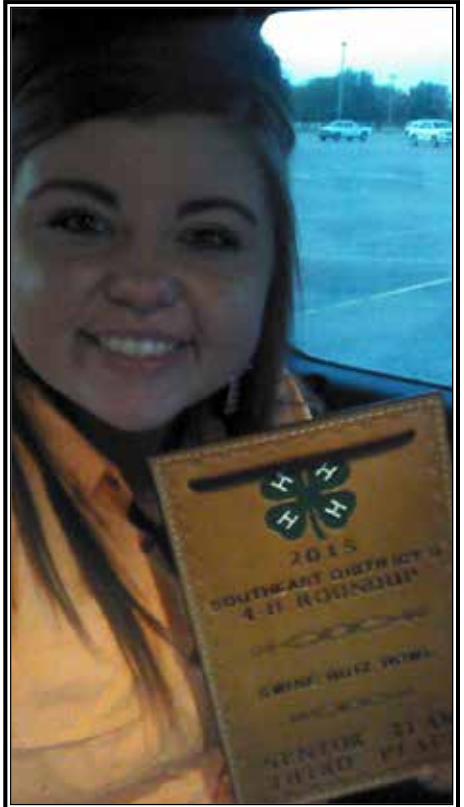

Dakota was also involved in FFA. She competed in Creed speaking, quiz, and many other LED and CDE competitions including Dairy Judging, in which her team made it to state for two years, which led to her placing so well in Dairy Judging that she received a certificate to purchase a calf to show in the 2016 Scramble Show at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, where she won an award for her stall display. She held an office for Silsbee FFA all four years of high school and received the Lone Star Degree her Senior year.
