

Rheudolph “Rudy” Gray

April 3, 1930 - November 19, 2019

Celebrating the Life of Rheudolph “Rudy” Gray

Monday, November 25, 2019 1:00 p.m.

Broussard’s Chapel
Nederland, Texas
Mr. Michael Williams

“The Old Violin”
by Johnny Paycheck

Obituary/Introductory Comments

“He Touched Me”
Neil Williamson and Children

“On the Wings of A Dove”
Neil Williamson and Children

Remembrances
Neil Williamson

Message
Mr. Michael Williams

“There Goes My Everything”
Prerecorded by Mr. Gray

“Old Time Religion”
Prerecorded by Mr. Gray

Closing Prayer

Rheudolph “Rudy” Gray, 89, of Autryville, North Carolina, died Tuesday, November 19, 2019, at SECU Hospice House, Smithfield, North Carolina. He was born on April 3, 1930, in Blum, to Nettie Valentine Sevier Gray and John C. Gray. Rudy was the youngest of nine children, worked as a Welder for forty years with Texaco-Chevron in the Petrochemical industry, and was a member of the Nederland Avenue Church of Christ. He was also skilled at playing the guitar and loved singing country music.

Survivors include his wife, Lettie Lou Gray; son, Jeffery and his wife, Marie Gray; daughters, Lana and her husband, Harold Licatino and Phyllis and her husband, Mike Burgess; grandchildren, Dwight Smith and his wife, Machelles; Amie James and her husband, Richard; Neil Williamson and his wife, Patty; Janie Kenna and her husband, John; Douglas Gray and his wife, Christa; and Thomas Gray; eight great-grandchildren; stepson, Laurice Williams and his wife, Becky; and families.

He is preceded in death by his parents; first wife, Joyce Brown Gray; and his siblings.

Gray

Family Reunion

July 4, 2003

Pallbearers

Dwight Smith
Neil Williamson
Thomas Gray
Douglas Gray
Mike Burgess
Brad Lacatino
Ethan Williamson
John Kenna

Interment

Oak Bluff Memorial Park
Port Neches, Texas

Please sign Mr. Gray's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com