Concerning Christian Funerals

It is good that you have gathered together to join family and friends at the funeral service for Dr. Michael Wayne Haiduk. God's Word urges believers in Jesus as their Savior to "rejoice with those who rejoice and mourn with those who mourn" (Romans 12:15). Death is a time of sadness, but Jesus speaks of it now also as a necessity. He said once, "Unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains a single grain of wheat; but if it dies it brings a good harvest" (John 12:24). When you plant a seed, it must die in the ground before it can grow. We generally do all we can to live and not die. God, however, says we must die in order to live. What we see as the ultimate tragedy, He sees as the ultimate triumph. When a believer in Jesus dies, it's not a time to despair, but a time to grieve in trust. Thanks to our Savior's birth, death and resurrection, the seed buried in the earth will blossom in heaven. We join together during this brief service also in praise, prayer and honor to Christ Jesus, the Savior born to die and rise for us. "For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive" (1 Corinthians 15:22).

The Invocation and Opening Prayer

Hymn

"Borning Cry"

- 1 "I was there to hear your born-ing cry, I'll be there when you are old.
- 2 "When you heard the won-der of the Word I was there to cheer you on;
- 3 "In the mid-dle a - ges of your life, not too old, no lon - ger young.

I re-joiced the day you were bap-tized to see your life un-fold.
 you were raised to praise the liv-ing Lord, to whom you now be-long.
 I'll be there to guide you through the night, com-plete what I've be-gun.

I was there when you were but a child, with a faith to suit you well;
 If you find some-one to share your time and you join your hearts as one,
 When the eve-ning gent-ly clos-es in and you shut your wea-ry eyes, in a blaze of light you wan-dered off to find where de-mons dwell."

 I'll be there to make your vers-es rhyme from dusk till ris-ing sun."
 I'll be there as I have al-ways been, with just one more sur-prise."

4 "I was there to hear your born-ing cry, I'll be there when you are old.

I re-joiced the day you were bap-tized to see your life un-fold."

Family Remembrances

Scripture Readings and Reflections

Isaiah 35:1-10

“The desert will rejoice, and flowers will bloom in the wastelands. The desert will sing and shout for joy; it will be as beautiful as the Lebanon Mountains and as fertile as the fields of Carmel and Sharon. Everyone will see the Lord’s splendor, see his greatness and power. Give strength to hands that are tired and to knees that tremble with weakness. Tell everyone who is discouraged, “Be strong and don’t be afraid! God is coming to your rescue, coming to punish your enemies.” The blind will be able to see, and the deaf will hear. The lame will leap and dance, and those who cannot speak will shout for joy. Streams of water will flow through the desert; the burning sand will become a lake, and dry land will be filled with springs. Where jackals used to live, marsh grass and reeds will grow. There will be a highway there called “The Road of Holiness.” No inner will ever travel that road; no fools will mislead those who follow it. No lions will be there; no fierce animals will pass that way. Those whom the Lord has rescued will travel home by road. They will reach Jerusalem with gladness, singing and shouting for joy. They will be happy forever, forever free from sorrow and grief.”

Revelation 21:1-4

“Then I saw “a new heaven and a new earth,” for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Look! God’s dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. ‘He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death’ or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.”

1 Thessalonians 4:13-17

Our friends, we want you to know the truth about those who have died, so that you will not be sad, as are those who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will take back with Jesus those who have died believing in him. What we are teaching you now is the Lord’s teaching: we who are alive on the day the Lord comes will not go ahead of those who have died. There will be the shout of command, the archangel’s voice, the sound of God’s trumpet, and the Lord himself will come down from heaven. Those who have died believing in Christ will rise to life first; then we who are living at that time will be gathered up along with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will always be with our Lord.
