Winnie Jones Hall, 87, of Silsbee, died Wednesday, March 15, 2017. She was born on February 9, 1930, in Big Sandy, to Emma Blankenship Murphy and Jasper Murphy.

Mrs. Hall attended school at Big Sandy Independent School District, graduating in 1947. She later moved to Beaumont and attended Elliott Business College. After graduation she was employed at Behring Bearing Service. On a trip to Silsbee, she met and later married V.L. Jones, Sr., who was employed by Butler Drilling Service. The couple traveled with his work for six years and then decided to settle in Silsbee to be near V.L.'s family.

Mrs. Hall worked at Hardin County NDI and she also received the Community Service Award from the Silsbee Chamber of Commerce on April 7, 1981. She has been a faithful member of Friendship Baptist Church since 1957. She served as principal of VBS and the Women's I Sunday School class.

Survivors include her children, Jerry Jones and his wife, Sherlon; Suzanne Powell; V.L. "Rusty" Jones, Jr.; Rodgel Daugherty and her husband, Chris; and Jeanie Harrison and her husband, Robert; nine grandchildren; seventeen great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; and a very special friend of the family, Kenny Gibson. She is preceded in death by her parents; husband and father of her children, V.L. Jones, Sr. and husband, Arnilee Hall; sisters, Bertha Dillon, Vesta Overstreet, Essie Wiggins, and twin sister, Linnie Johnson; brothers, Jackson Eugene "Runt" Murphy, J.W. Murphy, and James Wayne "Spud" Murphy; and grandchild, Lynn Benefield.
