

Shari Ruth Harris
January 22, 1955 - November 17, 2018

“Life is love and love unites. A full heart promises a full life. A heart filled with love of God and family is a strong heart. Today, Terry and Shari are promising their hearts and lives to each other as a family and bringing with them the love of their families to form a solid extension of their own love for each other. When two people with love in their hearts for each other unite; the people they love unite as well. So, in essence, today, before God, Terry and Shari not only join their own lives, they are joining their families. Do you Ruth, Wayne, and Cody, take Terry and his family as your own? And do you Betty, Lynn, Martin, Carolyn, Mondie, and Lynn, take Shari and her family as your own?”

Prayer: Blessing this “new” family.

Shari was born to Ruth Marie and Jules Melton Bloomfield in Daisetta, Texas. She was the “baby” of the family, which included an older half-sister and her big brother, Wayne Bloomfield. The family moved to Nederland in 1955 and settled there.

Shari’s mother always said that she was headstrong and fearless, which led her to some wonderful adventures in her life – and a few mistakes... you know who you are! Ha. Ultimately, Shari lived a full life and enjoyed her time on earth.

Waiting to greet her in Heaven is her mother, Ruth (Smith), her father, Melt Bloomfield, her step-dad, Chuck Smith, and her in-laws, Betty and Lynn Harris.

She is survived by her loving husband, Terry Harris, her brother, “dear” Wayne Bloomfield, her daughter and best friend, Mondie Hebert, and husband, Clay, of Nederland, her stepson, Lynn Anthony Harris, grandchildren, Daxton and Marley Hebert and Remi Harris, her sister-in-law, Carolyn Harris, her “favorite” uncle and aunt Sidney and Carolyn Kelly, of Richardson, her niece, Cody Marie Cassham, of Albany, New York, and her “forever friend”, Toni Willey Forey.

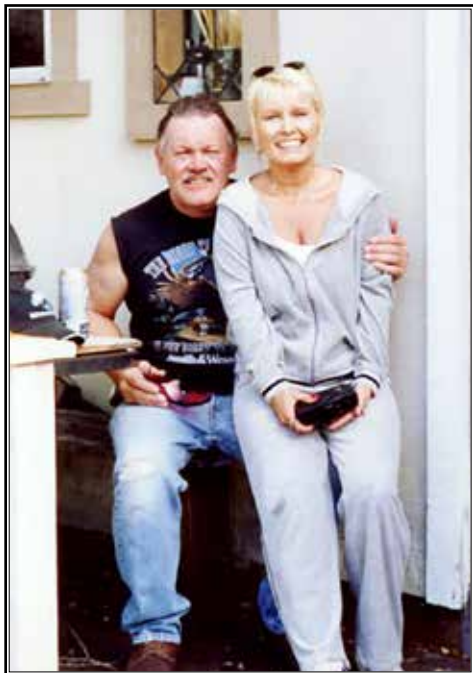

*Blessed to get to Love You,
From: Me, Family and Friends.
What a Glorious Day,
When we meet in Heaven again.
~Terry*

Celebration of Life

Sunday, December 2, 2018 5:00 p.m.
Nederland Knights of Columbus Hall
Nederland, Texas
Brother Bucky Faggard

Memorial Contributions
American Cancer Society
#4 Bayou Brandt, Suite B
Beaumont, Texas 77706

Please sign Mrs. Harris' guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com