PRELUDE

WORDS OF GRACE AND GREETING Reverend David Johnson

PASTORAL PRAYER Reverend David Johnson

*RESPONSIVE PSALTER Psalm 23

Leader: The Lord is my shepherd;
 I shall not want.

People: He maketh me to lie down
 in green pastures:
 he leadeth me beside the still waters.

Leader: He restoreth my soul:
 he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

People: Yea, though I walk through the valley
 of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil:
 for thou art with me;
 thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Leader: Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

People: Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord
forever.

PRAYER OF COMMENDATION

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

POSTLUDE

*Congregation will please stand.

Renee Yeates Hayes, 90, of Beaumont died March 8, 2018. Born October 20, 1927 in Huntington, Texas, the third child of the six children of Leon & Myrtle McMullen Yeates, she was a resident of Beaumont for over seventy years.

In March of 1947 she married the love of her life, James Layton Hayes. Together they raised three children and were the proud grandparents of seven adoring grandchildren.

From her time spent forging lifelong friendships in the Minglewood subdivision of Beaumont to hosting fish fries and costume parties to weeks upon weeks spent enjoying Crystal Beach, she truly knew how to enjoy life.

“Nee”, as she was lovingly known, was the very happiest when surrounded by her family anywhere they were together. In addition to the wonderful relationships she had with her children and grandchildren, she remained incredibly close to her brother and sisters throughout their lives—their bond was like no other. She missed them all terribly.

In addition to her parents and husband, Mrs. Hayes was preceded in death by brother Juan Yeates and wife Bennie; sisters Rhazine Tucker and husband Jack, Azelle Denum, Juanita Sisks and husband Robert, and Charlotte Slack and husband Billy; niece Brenda Yeates; and son-in-law Michael Tyndall.

Mrs. Hayes is survived by her children Jim Hayes and wife Laura of Beaumont, Lissa Tyndall and Larry Busceme of San Miguel de Allende and Beaumont, and Shanna Moore and husband Randy of Conroe; grandchildren Layton Hayes of Los Angeles, California, Anne Tyndall of Beaumont, Hunter Hayes and wife Abha of Washington, D.C., Laura Forni and husband Carlo of Houston, Lydia Harris and husband Alex of Durham, England, Sally Earwood and husband Brad of Columbus, Mississippi, and Marion Hayes of Houston; great-granddaughters Anne Lowry Earwood and Elizabeth Hayes Earwood of Columbus, Mississippi; sister Myriam Brown and husband Bobby of Columbia, South Carolina; brother-in-law Robert Denum of Lufkin; and fifteen nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Hayes was surrounded by her loving family in the hours leading up to her death. She left this earth the same beautiful, strong, gracious woman she always was and will be greatly missed.

Our family would especially like to thank Martha Jackson and Nora Ceaser for the tender care and love they gave “Miss Renee”. We also want to thank the staff of Harbor Hospice for the comfort they provided our mother.

The Irish Blessing

May the road rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
The rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.

May God be with you and bless you;
May you see your children's children.
May you be poor in misfortune,
Rich in blessings,
May you know nothing but happiness
From this day forward.

May the road rise to meet you
May the wind be always at your back
May the warm rays of sun fall upon your home
And may the hand of a friend always be near.

May green be the grass you walk on,
May blue be the skies above you,
May pure be the joys that surround you,
May true be the hearts that love you.
