David William Hebert

died on January 1, 2019, at his home in Port Arthur. David graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in the class of 1983. He loved and missed his longtime partner, Ronald York, who predeceased him. David was the most loving soul. David had a smile, a good word and handshake for all he met. He helped everyone without being asked and without expecting anything in return. He assisted his parents daily in every possible way. David cut their grass, repaired the house, set up Holiday lights, made salad dressing and so much more. He did it all with a smile. When his parents' illness required constant trips to the doctor, David made time to be there for every treatment with his sister Jennifer and his siblings. He did this while not missing any time from work.

David loved his two dogs, Caboo and Rosie. He had a heart for rescuing dogs. As a sign on his mantle said, His Kids have Paws. He enjoyed walking with them at the beach, the sea wall and around his Port Arthur neighborhood. David got great joy from his animals and they loved David.

David was a loving uncle to Liam, Poppy, Haley, Trey, Taylor, Tyler, Trevor and Tristan, they loved Uncle David who exemplified at every family gathering, love, a smile, and service. David was a terrific example of servant leadership. He was the first to help clean up and always brought a delicious homemade cheesecake for all to share. He was most recently, godfather to young Liam, who fell instantly for David's fun-loving spirit.

David also had a work family that cared deeply for him. He worked for many years at Warneke Box Company in Colorado. He came back to Texas and in over a decade at Walmart with friends Kristi, Heather, Joel, Carole, and Laura. David never missed work. His friend Heather said, "David could always make a bad day better with his smile." His good friend, Laura, was always there to brighten his day. When David needed someone to babysit his very special dogs, Laura was always the trusted friend. Thank you, Laura Smith. Ric Resch and Mike Gilbride, lifetime friends, were always there. David's neighbors will also miss his warming presence, helpfulness and cheerfulness. David was a member of St. James Catholic Church.

David fought chronic illness for decades. He battled it with class and dignity. He never complained and always put others needs ahead of his own. David meant so much more to his family than these words can show. He was so friendly, unassuming and funny. He served others always over self. He will be missed beyond all measure.

David is survived by his mother and father, Linda and Bobby Hebert; and his brothers, Luke and his wife, Angie, and Robert and his wife, Jo; and his loving sister, Jennifer and her husband, Greg.
