Gerald Lee Hebert, 70, of Hamshire, died Wednesday, September 27, 2017. He was born February 26, 1947, in Kaplan, Louisiana, to Mary Agnes Duhon Hebert and Evan Hebert. He was a longtime resident of Hamshire, and retired as a fire protection supervisor at Grinnell after forty-three years.

In 1965, Gerald was named Mr. Longhorn, for his high school. Upon graduation from Hamshire-Fannett, he was awarded a gold watch for having thirteen years perfect attendance. Gerald was competitive about everything he did. He enjoyed playing poker, especially with his children and grandchildren. His love of basketball allowed him to coach Little Dribblers for nineteen years. Even when he would go to the horse races, he would race on foot, along the track. He had a love for life and lived it to the fullest, surrounded by his family and the things he loved.

Survivors include wife of forty-two years, Cecile Hargraves Hebert, of Hamshire; daughters, Kerrie Ogden and her husband, Robbie, of Hamshire; Shyrell Cupp and her husband, Tim, of Brock; Brandy Harris and her husband, Mark, of Tallmadge, Ohio; and LeAnn Farrell and her husband, Nick, of Jacksonville, Florida; sisters, Betty Cuniff and her husband, Shorty, of Hamshire; Monique Hopkins, and Melissa Leblanc; grandchildren, Christopher Guidry, Cody Guidry, Josh Girouard, Baylor Cupp, Trey Harris, Jered Geis, Slate Lemieux, Rayce Romero, Kaden Hopkins, Kaeleigh Boudreaux, Kelby Ogden, Kimber Ogden, Lacey Landry, Ashley Hopkins, Brianne Hopkins, Breeleigh Cupp, Jaycee Girouard, Kaycee Harris, Brittney Harris, Taylor Harris, and Nico Farrell; and great-grandchildren, Jase Guidry, Jordan Guidry, Cade Guidry, Coby Guidry, Maylee Morgan, Kyler Raggio, and Karson Kittner.
