Verna "Mimi" P. Heckaman, 87, of Hamshire, died Tuesday, November 13, 2018. She was born on March 27, 1931, to Ella May Rollins and Melvin Orange Cummings, in Hamshire.

Survivors include her daughter, Cheryl Craigen and her husband, Ricky, of Hamshire; son, Jerry Heckaman, of Hamshire; grandchildren, Heather Heckaman Lotz; Cody Heckaman and his wife, Jessica; Rocky Craigen and his wife, Misty; Ashley Davis and her husband, Eric; Kevin Heckaman and his wife; great-grandchildren, Aaron and Andrew Heckaman, Jamus and Kimbra Lotz, Kheagian and Cameron Heckaman; Madison and Austen Cockerham; Kaley, Malory and Drake Craigen.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Gerald Heckaman; daughter-in-law, Joetta Heckaman; and brother, Jiggs Cummings.

Mimi was a devoted and loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister and friend who loved everyone around her almost as much as her sports... especially her Astros. She loved to cook, bake, mow grass and spoil all the kids. Mimi loved bowling and square dancing with Paw Paw and our many get togethers with family, especially her "scissors". She looked forward to adventures with her friends like taking grandkids to AstroWorld for the weekend or going... well just everywhere. She was selfless and sacrificed her needs for the need of her family and friends. Mimi definitely led by example and was admired by many. She will greatly be missed.

Final placement of Mrs. Heckaman's urn will be at Fairview Cemetery, Winnie, at a later date.
