Concerning Christian Funerals

It is good that you have gathered together to join family and friends at the funeral service for Caroline Heisner. The Bible urges Christians to “rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.” Death is a time of sadness but the Lord also wants you to know that it is a necessity. St. Paul writes, “that which you sow does not come to life unless it dies; and the grain which you sow is unlike the plant which is to be!” Our flesh is mortal and returns to dust, but we look forward with expectation to the day of the resurrection. “We are sown a perishable body, we are raised an imperishable body.” We join together during this brief service in praise, prayer and honor to Christ Jesus our Redeemer. “For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all shall be made alive!”

Carolyn E. Heisner, 74, of Port Arthur, died Sunday, April 16, 2017. She was born on March 14, 1943, in Kountze, to Pauline Elizabeth Read Morgan and John D. Morgan.

Carolyn enjoyed her plants, trips to the casino, playing games, and drinking coffee with neighbors. She loved blowing bubbles with her great-grandchildren.

Survivors include her daughters, Michele Ayala of Port Arthur, Rose Heisner Rodriguez and her husband, Henry, of Nederland, and Connie Davis and her husband, Rodney, of Bridge City; sons, John Heisner and his wife, Gena, of Jefferson City, Missouri, George Heisner, Jr. and fiancée Rachel Moore, of Nederland, and Christian Heisner of Silsbee; twenty grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; brothers, Marvin Morgan and his wife, Virgie, of Silsbee and Jerry Morgan of Kountze; and sister, Doretha Crawford and her husband, Mert, of Fred.

She was preceded in death by her parents, John D. and Pauline Morgan; husband of thirty-two years, George Heisner, Sr.; and brother, James Morgan, Sr.
