Words of Comfort

Reverend Robert Besser

Pastoral Prayer – Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. AMEN.

“Amazing Grace”

Benediction

John Wesley Holliday, 67, passed away at home on December 7, 2017, after a lengthy illness. A Beaumont native and Lamar University graduate, he was born May 18, 1950, to Walter and Lillian “Cookie” Holliday and worked over 40 years as a general contractor.

He is survived by his wife of 39 years, Louann Weathersby Holliday; his daughter, Stephanie Holliday Park and her husband, Casey Park, of Beaumont; his son, Alex Holliday, MD, of Roanoke, Virginia; his mother; and his brother, Paul Holliday and his wife, Paula Nash Holliday, of Beaumont.

Never a more kind and decent man lived: he could never say no to friends and family in need. An unassuming and humble man, John Holliday, improved the lives of many in their homes and businesses throughout Southeast Texas and beyond. He knew how to get things done.
