

Justin Norbert Hoose
May 14, 1987 - December 8, 2019

Justin Norbert Hoose, 32, of Beaumont, died Sunday, December 8, 2019, at Christus Hospital-St. Elizabeth, Beaumont. He was born on May 14, 1987, to Sharon Kraemer Hoose and Norbert Hoose, in Beaumont.

If you met Justin, he made your life better. You undoubtedly laughed at his jokes, lost to him in dice, and googled his vocabulary – no, “boogaloo” is not in the dictionary.

Justin will be remembered by everyone who knew him for his infectious smile, his love of life, and his overabundant happiness. His embrace was unmatched, and he never met a stranger. He was the life of every party and loved to entertain the countless circles of friends he had with his wit or his dance moves, even if he only had one.

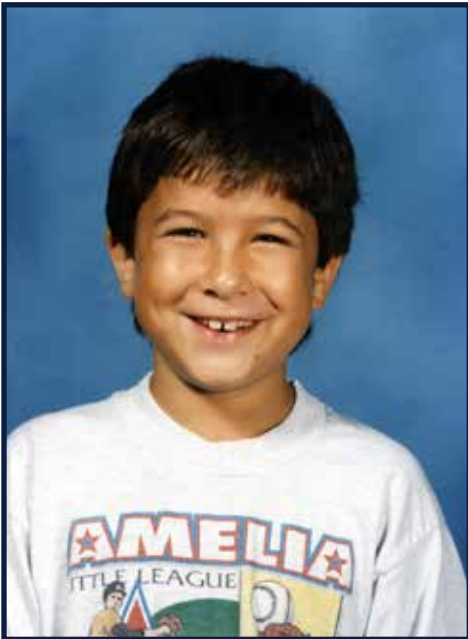

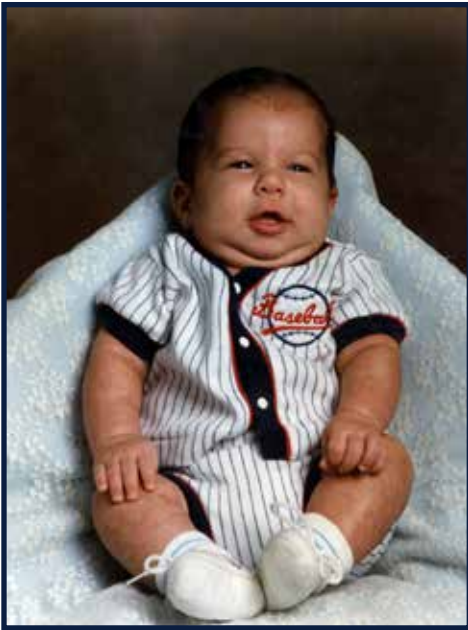

Although he was always the star of the show, he was also the first to show up when life demanded his seriousness. His affection and genuine love for his family and friends were among his greatest attributes. He taught his friends about strength and fatherhood through his steadfast commitment to his son Joe, and later about grace and teamwork through his marriage to Hannah. He was a pillar for them all, and together they created a beautiful life and family with the addition of their daughter Heidi.

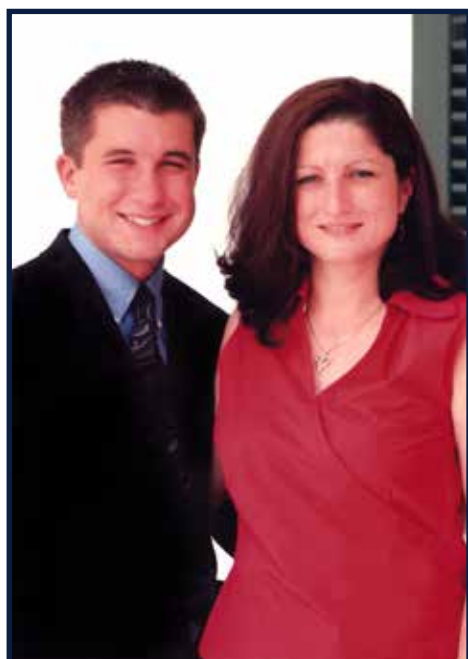

His life, love, and smile live on in Heidi and Joe. His devotion for his children was the motivation for everything he did, constantly striving to provide, love, and strengthen both of them.

Justin would want us all to spread our love, always have plenty of two-dollar bills, never take ourselves too seriously, and be sure to watch the Cowboys play on Sundays.

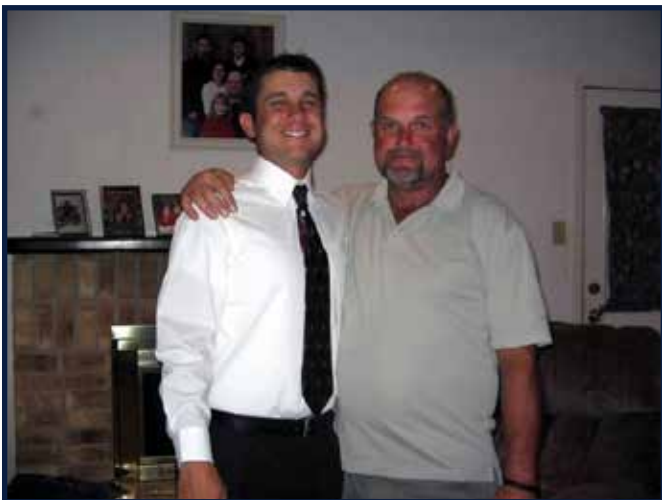

Survivors include his wife, Hannah Hoose; son, Joseph Hoose; and daughter, Heidi Hoose, all of Beaumont; mother, Sharon Kraemer Tyus and her husband, Nelson, of Beaumont; father, Norbert Hoose, of Beaumont; brother, Michael Perry and his wife, Candy, of New Braunfels; sisters, Michelle Hoose and Shelby Tyus, both of Beaumont, Courtney DeBettencourt and her husband, Tanner, of Houston, Victoria Flowers, and Holly Flowers; father-in-law, Edward Garrod and his wife, Shannon, of Beaumont; mother-in-law, Jill Garza and her husband, Tony, of Santa Fe; nieces, and nephews, Julana Perry, Dalton Garrison, Jayd Livings, Jasmyn Livings, Rhiannon Perry, Michaela Perry, Janyia Moaning, Eddie Moaning, Jr., and Emilia DeBettencourt; and a host of relatives and many, many, many friends.
