*R*ose Hoots, 87, of Beaumont, passed away Tuesday, May 28, 2019, at Oak Grove Nursing Home, Groves. She was born on October 4, 1931, in her home, to Elsie Mae Seymore and Anthony Coy Downs. Rose was the matriarch of the family. She loved the Dallas Cowboys, but she was not a fan of Tiger Woods. Rose also loved baking and cooking and sharing her recipes with her children and grandchildren.

Survivors include her sons, Dale Trahan and his wife, Nelda, of Port Neches; and Stan Trahan and his wife, Tammy, of Lake Charles, Louisiana; daughters, Margaret Olona Koncaba and her husband, Cliff; Delia Hancock; Sheila Walker and her husband, Lowell; Betty Keffer and her husband, Mark, all of Nederland; Darlene Porter and her husband, Jim, of Tennessee; and Kelly Hoots, of Nederland; twenty grandchildren; twenty-six great grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren; sister, Delores Coudrain, of Beaumont; and numerous nieces, nephews and extended family.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Rodney Hoots; sons, Harry Trahan and Mark Trahan; stepsons, Kendall Hoots and Jeff Hoots; and brothers, Tony Downs, James Downs and Bill Downs.

The family would like to give a special thanks to Hospice Plus and Oak Groves Nursing Home for the excellent care of their mother.
